

Come Up to Me ~ pt 2 Transcript

Audio Version

Hello, Precious Remnant.

Well, I trust you have been making some changes in your life to come up higher and that you have been fighting the flesh. It seems like the Lord has begun a process here. As I spoke to you of fasting for three days with just water, it was a difficult fast for me and I had a lot of detox symptoms, but the Lord sustained me and I came off it - and as soon as I had come off it, the Lord began to speak to me further and I realized that it was a continuation. So, I want to share with you today, Friday, what the Lord has been sharing with me all week.

So, once my water fast was finished, the Lord began to speak to me about seeking knowledge. And He showed me how there was a pattern in my life... when I read a book, I can't put it down until I've finished it. I have to know what happens in the end. When I watch a movie, I can't stop at halfway. I have to know what happens in the end. And if I am watching a series, I keep watching episode after episode to see what happens in the end. The Lord showed me how this quest for knowledge is a thing that runs in the genes - and it goes right back to Eve, who looked at the fruit of the tree, of the knowledge of good and evil, and it seemed good for food and to make her wise - she sought knowledge. And the Lord said to me that a desire for knowledge always tends to EXCESS. And when this happens, one spirit grows weak. It is a hunger of the fleshly mind and the intellect to know what's going on, to understand what's going on.

About two years ago, the Lord told me that my hunger for knowledge was greater than my hunger for spiritual impartation, and that was a really shocking statement to hear. I endeavoured to bring about a balance with that. Now once again in this season, as He's calling us up higher up the mountain, He brought the subject up again. You know, across the road from us, I have a neighbor. He's now a widower, but when I first moved here, his wife was still alive. They had two sons - both were drug addicts. One has since died. The other one is still addicted to heroin now, and his parents have removed him from their house because those boys were always robbing their parents blind... And he now wanders the streets. When the weather is bad, he sleeps under the carport or overhang outside his father's house, because he's not allowed in the house any longer. This is a son of about 38 years old, and I do not have much time for him because he has been sent to rehab at least 3 or 4 times, he comes out, seemingly fully repentant. He is praising the Lord and quoting scriptures, and then next thing you know, he's back where he was before. And it's because he doesn't change his habits and his friendship circle. And the Lord actually spoke to me and rebuked me for my arrogance concerning this young man, because He said I am not that much different from him. I have many times decreased my seeking of knowledge. (I've always wanted to learn new things, understand new things). I'm interested in very many topics and every so often, I realize I'm spending too much time doing it, and then I will pull back. Then before you know it, I relapse and there I go doing it again, looking for information and learning things I did not know before. And the Lord said to me I'm not so much different to this drug addict who is sleeping under the carport across the road. I really had to repent for my prideful attitude towards him, because I don't give him the time of day because I feel like he's had so many chances, put his parents through such hell. And I know if he speaks to me, he's going to try and get money out of me... So the Lord dealt with my attitude there.

However, the Lord then said to me, "I'm calling you to another fast. I don't want you to wear earrings for three days!" And I thought, "Oh my goodness, Lord. Well, that's strange!" But it's also hard for me, because earrings are the last thing I put on when I get dressed for the day, and I always choose ones that will go with what I'm wearing... and I feel naked if I don't wear my earrings. And the Lord said to me, "Those earrings symbolize what you hear; knowledge that you've gathered for yourself with your own natural ears and eyes". And I'm not to wear them for three days. And He also said to me that I am not to look at any news site for three days. So, I thought, "Okay, well, let's do that. Let's be obedient to the Lord. He's asked this of me". I felt very strange going out with no earrings on, but I knew what it was symbolizing the seeking after natural knowledge; the seeking after the knowledge of man, the wisdom of man.

Then the Holy Spirit pointed out to me that it was the fallen angels who gave men knowledge of various things. It doesn't mention much about it in the Bible, but in the Book of Enoch it gives in great detail what skills and information and knowledge the fallen angels taught mankind when they came down to earth. Part of that knowledge was how to kill a child in the womb, but they also taught men how to make weapons for war. That was not something God wanted man to be doing - killing one another with weapons. It was the fallen angels who gave men knowledge of many things. And it was also the serpent who pushed Eve to seek knowledge rather than relationship with God.

So the Lord was putting his finger on this subject of knowledge. Then on Monday night (10th) at 10:30 p.m., I opened the back door to let the cat out. And there in the sky, straight ahead of me. I couldn't believe what I saw. There was an almost full moon (just past full moon), shining like a bright golden disc in the sky. And above and below it were two small curved clouds that exactly made the shape of an eye. So, the moon looked like the pupil of the eye. I actually thought I was seeing things and the the edges of the clouds were lit up with an electric glory light from this bright, shining moon. And the Lord said to me, "I will glorify the manchild company. I will be a canopy and a covering over their heads and an undergirding beneath them". And the Holy Spirit said to me, "Note the time that you saw the sign in the sky". And it was 10:30, as I said, which is 22:30pm. So, I looked up the Hebrew word H2230, and it is 'zarum', which means 'flood a gush of water, a storm or a tempest'. This word is used in Isaiah 4:5,6, speaking of protection from the storm and the rain:

(Isa 4:5) And the Lord will create over the whole site, over every dwelling place of Mount Zion and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory shall be a canopy (a defence of divine love and protection). (Isa 4:6) And there shall be a pavilion for shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge and a shelter from storm and from rain.

And it's also used in Isaiah 25:4

'You have been a strength for the poor, a strength to the needy, and his distress, a refuge from the storm. {There's that word 'zarum'}, a shadow from the heat when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm (zarum) against a wall.

So there in Isaiah 25, we see the protection that God spoke of with that sign I saw in the sky - with a canopy overhead, a refuge from the storm. Remember that thunder clouds indicate storms. And I found this last phrase in Isaiah 25:4 very interesting – ‘when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against a wall’. The word for ‘terrible ones’ means ‘oppressor, tyrannical’, in other words, a strong overlord. And it made me think of the terrible ones of the New World Order, the terrible ones, the elite who want to oppress and crush mankind. So here in Isaiah 25, God is saying He will be a shade over our heads and the blast of the terrible ones will be as a storm against a wall. In other words, God's going to be a wall in between us and them, a canopy of protection over the heads of the manchild company as they are glorified.

So, the Lord was prompting me to fast the news sites for three days, and I said to the Lord, “Lord, things are moving so fast now, I'm concerned I will not know if something important happens,” And He said to me, “I will tell you if something important happens and you must trust Me to tell you everything you need to know”. And then He showed me that when Moses was in the midst of the cloud at the top of the mountain. That cloud hid from him everything else that was going on in the world around him. It hid his ability to get knowledge via his five senses, and all the information and input he got was from God's mouth. It was God who told him that the Israelites were corrupting themselves at the foot of the mountain. God knew everything that was going on. Moses could not hear them but God told him what he needed to know. Only when he got lower down the mountain, could he hear the noise of them cavorting round the golden calf. But God on top of the mountain knew everything. So, Moses needed nothing more than the input of God's mouth in order to be fully informed of what was going on and of what he needed to do.

On Monday morning, I had woken up with the phrase of a song singing in my spirit: 'You alone are the anchor', and it comes from a song which says:

In the eye of the storm
You are in control
in the middle of a war,
You guard my soul.
You alone are the anchor
when my sails are torn,
Your love surrounds me
in the eye of the storm.

And I found that was really interesting, considering that on Monday night, I saw an eye in the sky and the moon or the pupil of the eye, (which is the word in Hebrew 'little man of the eye', representing the man child company) was fully guarded above and below by dark clouds. So, He is the anchor. He is the shield, He is the protection. We need no other input or protection other than the Lord God.

You know when Noah went into the ark and God sealed him in, judgment unfolded after that. When Lot went out of Sodom. Judgment unfolded once he had left there. You may be asking why God is not thrusting you out of the place where you are and bringing you to safety. But do you understand that it is your presence in that place that it is delaying the unfolding of judgment. And at God's appointed time, He will thrust you out - and once you are removed, then the judgment will roll out.

Noah was carried out, but Lot's own feet took him out. So, there are many ways to be protected from judgment. You must just be obedient. Noah was obedient with every step that God told him to do in the building of the ark and the filling of it with whatever he needed. And he built in obedience to God. And it was what he had built in obedience to God that carried him out of the place where judgment was unfolding in increasing measure. No one knew judgment was coming but he had understanding of the times. Lot, on the other hand, had no idea judgment was coming. He was just grieved at the wickedness he saw all around him day after day in Sodom. But because of the relationship and the covenant Abraham had with God, Lot was brought out of Sodom. Lot went out in haste without any preparations in advance, but Noah was fully prepared, fully ready and sealed in and sheltered before the judgment unfolded.

Guided Movement

The Lord continued speaking to me about the topic of knowledge and the desire of man to always eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, rather, from then from the tree of Life. and the Holy Spirit began to show me a parable through the GPS system that we use when we need to get to a place where we don't know where we're going. GPS stands for 'Global Positioning System'. You know, we tend to use what we hear from natural news sources as a GPS to get our bearings and to guide whether we turn right or left in our daily life. We check weather reports to see what to put on. We check financial reports to check whether to move investments. We check end-time news sites to see whether anything further has happened in the end-time prophetic timeline and these bits of information guide what we are doing in our daily life. And this is like being anchored to the earth and to the world system. We are using a GPS or a global positioning system concerning what we're hearing with our natural eyes and ears from the knowledge of man, the intellect of man, and the experience and wisdom of man.

Consider the Israelites in Egypt. They did not know that the plague of darkness was the second to last plague. All they saw from their place of immunity in Goshen was that God was systematically hammering the gods of Egypt! The Israelites did not kill the lambs and put the blood on the doorpost because of what they saw with their natural eyes and heard with their natural ears. They did not do that because they thought, "Oh, that plague of darkness was terrible. I wonder what's happening next. We better just cover our doorways with blood..." They did it following express instruction from the mouth of God, through someone who had spoken to God face-to-face. What they did made no sense in the natural. It had never been done before, but they were obedient. And when we are getting our positioning in the earth and our next movements are dependent on the mouth of God and not upon the wisdom, the knowledge and the new sights of man, then we will be protected.

Just like Noah, the Israelites were sealed into their homes. They were sealed in by the blood. Noah was sealed into the ark by God, and judgment was unleashed outside - and then the waters of judgment carried Noah out of that place. And in Egypt, the waters of judgment and cursing out of Pharaoh's mouth thrust them out of Egypt. Their leaving was not chaotic! In Egypt, it was chaos, but the people of God went out in an orderly fashion, marshalled in tribes, with their bread dough on their heads and their flocks by their sides. That tells you they took some provision, because the flocks provided them with meat and milk - and obviously they were going to eat unleavened bread on the way. But the gold, silver and garments they got from the Egyptians were reserved for the building of the tabernacle. And I want to say to you, Remnant, God may bless you with gold, with silver or with increase as you move out of Egypt, but it is RESERVED FOR GOD TO USE for the building of the tabernacle in the wilderness, and therefore it is not to spend upon yourself, upon your own lusts, upon your own pleasures.

I want you to consider also Joseph, when he was told in a dream to take Mary and the child and go to Egypt. Joseph did not wake up, go outside, look at the weather, whether storm clouds were coming. He did not turn on the local news station or wake his neighbour and ask him if this was wise. He just got up and was obedient to God. We have to stop using a GPS system governed by earthly information for our decision making. We have to learn to come up higher on the mountain, to come up to God and to be there so that He can tell us everything we need to know and our decisions and our movements can be instigated and governed by what God says.

Noah did not use an earthly GPS to turn right or left. His movement and actions were initiated by instruction from the mouth of God. The people around him carried on doing what they had always done. But Noah was not married to Earth and its ways. The people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, it says in Luke 17. But Noah was married to the blueprints that God had written on his heart with His own mouth, and each instruction came and he was obedient to it. When God said to him, "Gather two of each animal," he did not look at what was going on around him, consult the local zoo or the agricultural union. He used the voice of God as his GPS, and as a result, he and his family were sealed in and saved when judgment began to unfold. Moses up the mountain in the midst of the cloud cannot see or hear anything earthly. All he can hear is God's voice issuing him instructions and blueprints. Then God says, "You had better go back down..." and only when he descended lower, did he and Joshua hear the cacophony of the golden calf worship. IF YOU ARE TOO LOW DOWN ON

THE MOUNTAIN, THE CHAOTIC NOISE OF WORLD EVENTS AND IDOLATRY WILL ALARM YOU.

Beloved, you must remember this: THE INTERNET IS GOING TO GO DOWN. The unfurling New World Order is going to be controlling and interfering with our access to information and power. If the information you discover on YouTube or other sites, be it financial advice, end time preparedness sites, natural medication sites, war news, et cetera et cetera - If the information you get from those places is what you use to make your decisions about daily activities and movements, then when the Internet goes down, you are going to be lost and vulnerable. If your life decisions are being governed by earthly sources of information, (that horribly irritating voice on the GPS system in your car that I'm talking about something like that), what are you going to do when the lady that says ,T"urn right, your destination is up ahead, Turn right, turn right. You've missed your turn off. Turn right. Turn right," wWhat are you going to do when that voice goes silent? What are you going to do when you can't look up the stock exchange news? When you can't just Google and see what the answer to something is? I'll tell you what you're going to do - Because you are so used to having your movements governed and led by outside sources of information, you are going to start using your natural eyes and ears to decide your next move, and it will bring disaster. Think of Eve. She looked with her natural eyes and the tree looked good for food and to make her wise. And we all know the outcome of that...

We have to wean ourselves of being led by earthly voices, signs and events. This is why God is calling us to come up to Him and to BE THERE. What does 'be there' mean? It means 'stay there'. Don't just run up the mountain, say hello to God, hear one sentence from Him and go back down to the safety of the lower altitudes. We have to COME UP TO HIM AND BE THERE. That indicates a weaning off earthly sources of information and earthly guiding voices and knowledge input. We must be led from within by His still small voice. And it is imperative, if you have been praying to be counted, worthy to escape the things coming on the earth, to position yourself in the midst of the cloud. Remember that word 'midst' means 'severed'. Position yourself in the midst of the cloud, severed and sealed away from earthly influence, BEFORE the outbreak of judgment.

Noah and his family went into the ark, which was sealed with bitumen all round it. And that word for bitumen (I think it's kaphar in the Hebrew) means 'redemption price'. So, it is a picture of being sealed in by the Blood of the Lamb. And then God sealed the door... and then the windows of heaven and the fountains of the deep opened up. But they were IN POSITION and they only had a window to the sky. I've spoken of this before. That word for 'window' used there in Genesis for that window at the top of the ark is the word meaning 'double light'. God designed the ark that they would receive double light from heavenly sources, light and revelation, and all the information and knowledge you need during the unfolding judgments will come from above, from the throne of God. There was no window in the ark to look out on the unfolding judgments. And why was that useful? Because if you can't see the disaster that's unfolding more and more on a daily basis, fear cannot hitch a ride in your ark!

We have to come up higher, Beloved. You are too low on the mountain slopes. Now, this obviously is quite a process. You don't realize how dependent you are on something until you begin to remove it from your daily life. When God called me to not look at news sites for three days and not to wear earrings for three days, He reminded me that the golden calf was made of peoples' earrings. It was the earrings they wore as they came out of Egypt, which adorned their ears. Those earrings speak of listening to the knowledge of Egypt, listening to the wisdom of Egypt, what you hear with your natural ears. The golden calf was made of the earrings. And when I stopped consulting news sites and stopped seeking knowledge from various end time sites (I'm very interested in information of herbs and essential oils, all that kind of thing. And even. canning and preserving of foodstuffs for long term storage and old-fashioned skills), I stopped for those three days looking at all that information. And I want to say to you, do you know how much time I freed up in my day?! It is only when you stop doing something habitual that you realize how much space and time it has carved out of your life and all that time, it's time that one can spend honing your spiritual ears to hear God's voice. Am I saying it's a sin to learn about long term food preservation? No, I am not. Am I saying it is a sin for women to wear earrings? No, I am not. God was teaching me through a natural parable in my own life using types and shadows so that I could understand the principle of what He was saying.

You know, Beloved remnant, as we live in this end time generation, our even our Christian sources of end time information can become a golden calf that we worship before, instead of coming up higher, coming up to Him and being there - all these other sources of information are going to be silenced. Even this podcast, one day you're not going to be able to access my podcasts and my website, and that's absolutely fine because the still small voice of God is within you. But what concerns me is if you are completely dependent upon what I share in order to move forward in your lives spiritually, then it's going to be difficult when you can no longer hear my voice as your spiritual GPS. The Holy Spirit has to be our ultimate source.

Remember, Jesus said, "I'm sending you the Holy Spirit and he will tell you the things that are to come". He's the Counselor. He's the Friend. He's the Advocate. The Holy Spirit, that still small Voice must be our go-to, and we have to commit our way to Him and not act in any way in presumption, leaning on our own understanding, but consult Him first. You know, I'm learning to do this: "Holy Spirit, which is the best road to take to town this morning? Must I turn right or must I go straight?" Not leaning on my natural understanding because the Holy Spirit knows if there's an accident on a certain road. The Holy Spirit knows if there's a traffic jam. And so, I'm learning to say, "Shall I go straight, Lord, or shall I turn right?" And whatever He says, I don't question it. I say, "okay". And often, when I go the way He tells me to go, there's some spiritual lesson He teaches me along the way, even as I am journeying in my ordinary daily activities, be it going to the supermarket, be it going to visit a friend, going to down to the beach, whatever I'm doing, the Holy Spirit continually teaches me.

And I want to read you Psalm 32, which was one of the scriptures that came to me when I saw that moon looking like an eye with the cloud above and below. I wish I'd taken a photograph of it, but I didn't have my camera ready. And by the time I registered that I should take a photo, the wind had moved the clouds, so it literally only stayed like that for probably about a minute.

Psalm 32:7 'You are my hiding place. You will preserve me from trouble. You compass me about with songs of deliverance. V8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go. I will guide you with My eye. Don't be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding, whose mouth must be held with bit and bridle so that they come with you'.

And I want to read you that also in the Passion translation. It says it beautifully.

'I hear the Lord saying, I will stay close to you, instructing and guiding you along the pathway for your life. I will advise you along the way and lead you forth with My eyes as your guide. So don't make it difficult. Don't be stubborn when I take you where you've not been before. Don't make me tug you and pull you along. Just come with Me'.

Isn't that beautiful? So Beloved, the Lord has called us to come up to Him and to be there. That is ascending higher every time you choose to rely on the voice of God and the guidance of the Holy Spirit, instead of using earthly sources of knowledge, guidance or wisdom. Every time you do that and you make that choice, you're taking another step higher on the mountain. You're taking another step away from the place where the worship of the golden calf happens. You're taking a step away from leaning on natural understanding, from leaning on intellect, from leaning on outside sources, and you're taking a step closer to being led from within by His still small voice. The more we are used to being led from without by sensations, from our natural senses and from outward sources of information and input, the more we are vulnerable to being led into captivity. But when we are led fully from within, the Lord leads us in pleasant places. All His paths are peace. He is our hiding place. He will stay close to us, instructing and guiding us. He will be a canopy of protection over the head of the manchild company and He will be an undergirding underneath. And He has promised that he will glorify the manchild company.

Jesus, in John 17, prayed, "That they may be one as We are one; I in You and You in Me; May they be one in Us". Jesus prayed for that union with the Father and He said THIS is the glory He has given us - to be one with the Father, to be one with Him. Jesus did nothing of His own accord. He only did what He saw the Father doing and said what He heard the Father saying. That is union. Union is marriage. In the days of Noah, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage. And I want to say to you, Beloved, what are you eating and drinking? What are you partaking of? What source of knowledge are you eating from? What waters are you drinking from? What are you marrying yourself to? If the most important thing in your life is the financial report and seeing what the price of gold and silver are every day, if the most important thing in your life is the weather report., if the most important thing for you to listen to in the morning is your favorite end time teacher YouTube channel, you're still being led from without. Come up to Him and be there. God wants you to say what you hear Him saying and do what you see Him doing. Jesus said THIS IS THE GLORY THAT HE'S GIVEN US. And when the Lord said to me, He will glorify the manchild company, He's not saying he's going to pour some sort of shining light upon you, He's saying the depth and intensity of your union with the Father and the Son is going to be far beyond what you've ever experienced in your life - so that you move totally led and filled with the Spirit of the Living God and His kingdom will come on earth as it is in heaven, in and through you.

He's calling you to come up higher. Both Moses and John the Beloved received a call to come up. Moses heard 'come up to Me and be there'. John the Beloved heard 'come up here and I will show you what must happen in the future'. The invitation is issued by God. Do not be like the horse or the mule, which lacks understanding. God knows what is going to happen in the future. You don't have to get your information from a YouTube channel. You can get it straight from the mouth of God and with it, explicit, detailed instruction of what is the wisest thing for you to do.

Remember, the seven Spirits of God include the spirit of Knowledge, and the spirit of Wisdom and of Revelation. Knowledge, wisdom and revelation. Those three things are what the Bridal Company and the end-time church are seeking - wisdom, knowledge and revelation. And where is it found? It's found in the Spirit of the Living God, the seven Spirits of God. You don't have to seek earthly sources for knowledge, for wisdom, for counsel, for understanding.

You know, sometimes we hear the Lord say something and then we think, "Oh, I just need another confirmation of that". And you know what we do. We look for an outward sign¹ In other words, we're not waiting for the Lord to confirm to us through His Word, but we want an outward sign. And then if we see that outward sign, then we'll move in that direction. And what's that? That's being led from without. We have to learn to be led from within. Completely and utterly. God is trying to wean us off earthly input, outward sources of information, being led from without. He wants to lead his Endtime Remnant from within.

The removal of one source of input makes space and time for the expansion of another source of input. With your TV screen, you can watch the ordinary TV stations or if you've got a flat screen, you can change the source and you can plug in a memory stick with material to view which you have chosen and downloaded on that memory stick. On the TV screen of your mind, you can watch passively and absorb all the controlled dark frequency of the mainstream media and even alternative endtime earthly channel news sources... Or you can come up higher and let the voice of God record blueprints and revelation truth on the memory of your spirit. And then when you have more time in the day, which you would have ordinarily used to look at YouTube channels or to watch something, then you can meditate and rehearse and feed on the frequency records you've received from the mouth of God, and you will find that, as you go over and rewatch in your mind's eye what you have received at an earlier time, there is meat and depth there for you to be nourished, strengthened and guided by. The initial hearing and recording is just making a record for you to be able to consult, just as Moses did at the top of the mountain when he wrote down all the instructions from God. When he came down, he got Bezalel to flesh out and create in 3D all the patterns he had received in the detailed instructions at the top of the mountain. And in the same way, as you use the voice of God as your only source, I don't want to call it a GPS. I want to call it an HPS, a Heavenly Positioning Source, you will then be able to bring to manifestation in the earthly realm what you have received from His mouth. Coming up to Him is replacing your source of info from earthly to heavenly. It is moving your trust from being in your own understanding and ability to source useful information, and it's placing your trust in a deeper, higher way in the ability of God to sustain you and tell you all you need to know for wise decision making as you continue to walk this earth.

Beloved, double mindedness comes from input from too many sources of information. Come up to Me and be there, says the Lord. You are too low on the mountain. I really pray that the Lord may open wide and break the bread of what I've shared with you, so that it can really nourish and impart wisdom that will profoundly change your walk from here on; that you will not turn outward to get comfort, to get input.

I want to just share something else with you, Beloved. The Lord said to me that Netflix is one of the main arms of the New World Order elite for brainwashing and psychological manipulation, through subliminal programming. Why? Because when people seek entertainment, they are not alert, their defences are down, and it is easy to gain entry to both the subconscious and unconscious mind. The Word of God says, do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by a renewing of your mind. The best way to renew your mind is taking the words that God speaks to you and chewing on them, meditating on them, and getting the complete nourishment that He placed in them. And I can tell you, when God speaks, it might be one sentence, but there can be a whole month of meals for your spirit in that one sentence. May the Spirit of Truth. Guide you into all truth. Let's press on. Higher up the mountain. Amen.
