

Transition to New Focus - Audio

Firstly, I want to apologize profusely at the quality of the audio of this message. I had incredible resistance to making it, sound just came and went and I had to rerecord sentences and reinsert them. Then the last 10 minutes was attempted 3 times ... and eventually I released the podcast without it. Whoah, the enemy didn't like this message!! (I have included what I wanted to share at the end of the podcast in this transcript).

It is the evening of October the 7th, 2022, and I hope you will be busy doing your preparations and storing up food for yourselves and your animals. I wanted to share with you firstly a little bit more understanding I got about the second week, which would start this evening. God spoke to Noah on the 10th day of the month and said that in seven days it was going to rain, that he was to go into the ark with his family and the animals. But as I read Genesis 7, God gave me a bit more clarity about the second week. I had spoken to you about going into the ark of His presence, and He took me to Genesis 7 to read in more detail what was going on.

We see the beginning of Genesis 7, God gave Noah instructions to bring seven pairs of the clean animals into the ark and the clean birds. And we know this was because those animals would be needed for sacrifices. Of the unclean animals, he only had to bring a pair each. And then God told him that it was going to rain. But in Genesis. 7:11. It says 'in the year 600 of Noah's life, on the 17th day of the second month, the same day all the fountains of the deep were broken up and the windows of heaven were opened and it rained upon the earth 40 days and 40 nights'. And verse 13 says, 'ON THAT VERY SAME DAY, Noah, his three sons, his wife and their three wives went into the ark'. And lower down. It says, God, sealed them in. So, what I understood more clearly is that the second week, the week we're entering now, was a week of transition.

There was greater clarity given by God concerning, in Noah's case, the greater provision in certain areas because of the sacrifices. But Noah was not sealed into the ark on the 10th day. He still had the rest of the week where he could go backwards and forwards, taking things into the ark and only permanently went into the ark on the 17th and then God sealed them in. So, I do apologize for saying to you that all the preparations must be completely done by the 10th day, or that is by today, which is Friday 7th of October, because it seems that the second week was a TRANSITION WEEK. It was a week in which Noah moved from preparation to positioning, but his final positioning was complete by the end of the second week, which was the 17th of the 2nd month (the 8th month of the Hebrew calendar used now). And for us it is by the end of the week ending Friday, the 14th of October.

So, as I pondered this, I realized that what God was saying that was that Noah's focus must no longer be on the last chapter, the building and the preparation and the storing up chapter, but it was to be on the fine detail and on the fact that he was transitioning and moving into a new permanent place where he would be living for the duration of the judgment. And at that time God did not tell Noah how long that would be. I've had quite a few people writing to me and saying how long? how much food must be stored up? how long is it going to be for? God did not tell Noah that. He just said that it is going to rain for 40 days and 40 nights. But after that rain of judgment fell, the waters lay on the earth for 150 days, which is five months and Noah was in the ark for 1 year and 10 days altogether. So, I think if we're looking at something breaking out like nuclear war, depending on the effects that unfold worldwide. It's still going to be a time we should be shut in with the Lord. And reminds me of that verse in Isaiah. I'm not sure where it is, which says, 'Come into your chambers, My people, and shut your doors until the Lord's wrath is overpast – 'just for a little while', it says.

So I wanted to share that with you, just to give you further clarity so that you don't feel condemned if there's one or two other things you need to do as well as beginning to focus on the ark of His presence and worship and prayer. What one is also effectively doing is building a place of protection in the spirit, applying the Blood and worship and prayer forms almost like a dome of protection over yourselves and your families.

So, I also wanted to just share a bit more about the change of season that we're going into. On the 12th of September, the Lord said to me, suddenly, "I am moving you from a watchman position to a warrior position". And then He said, "The Lord is a man of war and as you find your place in Me, you become part of the corporate warrior company". Now that quote 'The Lord is a man of war' is from Exodus 15:3. Then He began to explain to me what it means to be moved from being a watchman to being a warrior. "A watchman is a defensive position. A warrior is an offensive position, A watchman warns warriors that the enemy is coming. A warrior goes forth to deal with it." That was a very important distinction and it gave me a bit of understanding as to there being considerable changes coming in my life and in the way the Lord uses me. Then about three weeks later. I was pondering again this change that He was going to bring about in my life, the change in positioning and function. And I began to ask Him questions about it. And then He said two phrases: 'home free' and 'final battle'. And when I asked Him what these things meant, the explanation was as follows:

HOME FREE: "Safely moved to your final position without detection or disturbance". And immediately the Scripture in Revelation 12 about the wings of a giant eagle being given to the woman to take her to the place prepared should where she would be fed and protected for time, times and half the time (three and a half years) came to me. So, I really felt that it was for more than just me. If you are worried about where you're going to end up and how you are going to get through this, the Lord says you will be HOME FREE. You will be safely moved to your final position without detection by the enemy and without disturbance. And it could involve those wings of a giant eagle.

FINAL BATTLE: “The final battle is the battle for position, priority and portion. He (alluding to Satan) would have My throne, be Lord over all and possess My inheritance. But the kingdom is given to the saints. It is written and it will stand”. The verses where it speaks about the kingdom being given to the saints is in Daniel 7:18,22 and 27. And you can go and look that up and read it.

Then the Spirit said to me, “Precise timing and positioning is crucial in these days. Every great warrior knows the value of split-second timing. It is the difference between victory and certain death”. So, as I was pondering about this, I said, “Lord, why is it necessary to change me from a watchman position to a warrior position?” He said, “Because the season is changing from watching for war to war at the door. Every hand must be on deck. Of what good is a watchman in the tower when the enemy is inside the gate and the battle is raging at his feet? You warn to prepare the Saints for what is coming. You warn of the hour approaching. When it is here, the alarm clock is turned off. It is time”.

And I asked the Lord if it meant that I would not be sending out emails anymore. And He said, “No. It doesn't mean that, but they will be less regular, and more pointed - arrows in the hand of a warrior. The battle comes to each one's home front now. This is your final finest hour, remnant of God. This is your time to arise and shine. Truth will be a sought-after commodity in the days of scarcity, and the hungry ones will make their way to you. Be bold! Souls are at stake. And the most sought-after treasure is not silver or gold, but the souls of men. Plunder the treasure houses of earth and lay the precious booty at My feet. Money will be of no worth in that time, but wisdom will be priceless. The fear of the Lord is a treasury and I will stock it with wisdom. Be prepared to be enlightened”.

So, I'm getting used to the idea that I am no longer an alarm clock LOL.

The next day, the Lord began to explain more to me about being a warrior. He said this: “The first enemy you will destroy as a warrior is fear. Fear renders my warriors impotent, paralyzed, even as they stand with well proved weapons in their hands. The heart must be swept free of fear and filled with courage and the spirit of My Might”. So, I asked Him, “How does one remove fear?” “By remembering who you are and Whose you are. Does an elephant run before an ant. Does a deer bolt before a firefly? My image takes precedence over all that I have created and the spiritual bows before the unspiritual. Darkness must retreat before Light. Not only will you stand your ground, but you will take ground under the unction of My Spirit”.

And then a word that I released some time back came to me and I had a very strong sense it was a word that was explaining what would be going on in the second week of Noah's final preparation. And the word is called The Legion of the Hard Hitters. I was considering just putting a link in the transcript, but I am actually going to include it here, so you have the whole message in one. So please bear in mind that it's not only me that is moving to a warrior position. He said that the war is coming to everyone's home front now, which means you're also going to function as a warrior! So let's see what the Legion of Hard Hitters was about:

The Legion of Hard Hitters

The Legion of Hard Hitters

Recently, the Lord had me deep in psalms 45, 46 and 47, showing me they were ascending stairs for the endtime remnant army to go higher. Psalms 44 to 49 are written for the sons of Korah, and Korah means 'ice'. The Word of God tells us there are storehouses of ice and snow and hail, which have been reserved, kept back until an appointed time of war. Ice, snow and hail are all frozen water, representing Words of the Father whose sound has been 'put on ice' so to speak until the appointed time of release. They are sometimes gentle, falling silently like a blanket of snow and refreshing and restoring water sources. At other times, they are hard words, like lumps of hail, which people find difficult to understand - much like the instance when Jesus said that unless His disciples ate His flesh and drank His Blood, they would have no part in Him. This caused many disciples to leave Him.

These psalms 46 have been penned for this Korah company; the sons of ice (hail), who are being released for this season of war from the storehouses of Heaven. In the time we are living in, there have been very large hailstones falling in various nations, some the size of melons. This is a prophetic sign of the spiritual season we are entering. God is going to be releasing onto the battlefields His seasoned warrior saints who carry great weight in the Spirit; the heavy hitters who are conversant with the secret things of God and will inflict much damage on the tents of darkness.

Psa 46:1 For the end, for the sons of Core; a Psalm concerning secret things. God is our refuge and strength, a help in the afflictions that have come heavily upon us. (Brenton translation)

Psa 46:1 To the Overcomer: for the sons of Korah, A Song upon Alamoth. (Jubilee translation)

Job 38:22 "Have you entered the storehouses of the snow or seen where the hail is stored, Job 38:23 which I've reserved for the tribulation to come, for the day of battle and war? ISV

While looking into this concept of the stored snow and ice, suddenly, the Father asked me, "Would you like to see the treasury of hail?"

"Yes, Lord." Immediately I am shown a room with very high ceiling, exactly like the treasury chamber at Petra, and it is full of people putting on their battle armour, strapping on their swords and placing their helmets firmly in place. It is packed like sardines and it is completely quiet in there, just the sound of swords being put into their sheaths and the clatter of buckles being strapped tight. The atmosphere is pregnant with anticipation.

The dawn light is beginning to stream through the eastern window and every so often, one looks up, takes note of the light level and then returns to his preparations, knowing the dawning of the day of the Lord is at hand and the time of running onto the battle field is here.

Very high up, close to the ceiling of the treasury, I see angels hovering, overseeing this preparation. Their eyes are shining very brightly and determinedly, warlike and fierce, as they know they will accompany these warriors to their battle stations. The air inside this room is buzzing with life and some sort of substance and, as I zoom in to look closer, I see it is the droplets of living honeyed oil I have seen before in the room that produces the hidden manna in heaven. This chamber is filled to the brim with the atmosphere of heaven and it is empowering these warriors with resurrection power in preparation for the task ahead.

I see the honeyed oil is coating their skins and their armour like a complete immersion-anointing in the oil of consecrated battle revelation. This will be their garment and their shield during this time ahead. Then I see large pottery urns along one wall, which are being filled with extra portions of this oil by angels and I am shown that inside the hearts of each warrior is a lamp which is burning brightly. I realise this troop of warriors are the wise virgins with their extra oil, equipped for a battle that will need extra refuelling while they stand and fight. I see wicks like strings being positioned by angels into the full urns of oil and then they insert the other ends into the heart lamps of each warrior, like fuelling lines which will continuously supply oil, so the lamps do not go out.

Once again, I am zoomed in closer to those wicks/fuelling lines. I see there are small rainbow coloured flames running along the wicks - and I am given knowledge that this represents the imbuing of the power and light of the seven spirits of God. Each warrior is receiving their daily portion along with the lamp oil, so they will not need to pause and regroup and search for supplies when they are running low. They will be recharged continuously as they wage war according to the Spirit's instruction.

I am reminded of my resin painting depicting a right hand holding a burning torch, which says 'Run... and receive' and see that this scene before me also depicts that burning torch continuously being hit with lightning bolts of revelation as the Man Who is a Mighty Warrior runs with that torch in His hand.

These warriors are that burning torch, each being individual flames of fire upheld by His mighty hand and He moves forward along His appointed course in the heavens. The verse from psalm 19 about the sun who comes out of his chamber to run his appointed course in the heavens and no-one being hid from the heat thereof comes to mind, but when I see it written in the sky, it says the SON is coming out of His chamber to run His course and I see the heavenly appointed course which has been set in place and the flaming torch of warriors, each expert in war is being carried along that course. They move in time with Heaven's clock, not by their own power or effort, but by the carrying power of the mighty right arm of the Son of Glory.

This company of armed and battle-dressed people pour forth from the storehouse of hail to besiege the enemy strongholds. They are the hard hitters who speak uncompromising words of Truth in the face of a compromised society and they do not back down or retreat. They are part of the execution of God's righteous judgements in the earth as they decree what they hear Him saying and the enemy is scattered before them. Their words will fall grievously on the heads of the wicked, causing significant damage to the enemy camp and yet melt beautifully to quench the thirst of the lambs of the fold. The sons of Korah in temple times were singers, worshippers and so we understand that much of the execution of these righteous judgments are done with the high praises of God in our mouths and the two edged sword in our hands. We bind kings with fetters and execute the judgments written during our worship! (Psalm 149)

Psa 18:13 The Lord also thundered in the heavens; and the Highest gave forth His voice, hailstones and coals of fire. Psa 18:14 Yea, He sent out His arrows and scattered them; and He shot out lightnings and confounded them.

Isa 28:2 Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one who as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing shall cast down to the earth with the hand.

Isa 28:17 Judgment also will I lay to the line and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.

Remember that when the plague of hail was released upon Egypt, it was accompanied by fire running along the ground:

Exo 9:23 Then Moses stretched forth his rod toward the heavens, and the Lord sent thunder and hail, and fire ran down to and along the ground, and the Lord rained hail upon the land of Egypt. Exo 9:24 So there was hail and fire flashing continually in the midst of the weighty hail, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation.

The release of the legion of heavy hitters is accompanied by fire because they have been filled with the fiery zeal of the Lord of Hosts. The thunder of the God of Glory accompanies their release and the earth shakes. As Joel 2:2 says, they are 'a great people and a strong people; there has not been ever the like, nor shall there ever be again, even to the years of many generations'.

Selah

So, saints, we must get accustomed to the new chapter of becoming warriors; worship warriors on active service, working with the armies of Heaven for His Kingdom to come and His will to be done. Psalm 149 says we have the privilege of executing the judgements written with the high praises of God in our mouths. We are going to be working with the Spirit of God rolling out His righteous judgements upon the wicked. Learn to pray imprecatory prayers. Look in the psalms and see what sort of things David prayed and decreed concerning the wicked and begin to speak them out as the Spirit leads (for instance, Psa 33:10 The Lord brings the counsel of the nations to nought; He makes the thoughts and plans of the peoples of no effect.). We are moving to a place of being unmoved by what is rolling out on earth because we are hidden in the ark, the secret place of the Most High, and busy moving to a higher place of worship, warfare and decreeing. Psalm 110 says He extends His sceptre from Zion and rules in the midst of His foes. That means the enemy is all around and yet, the Righteous King is ruling and executing judgements upon the wicked. The battle is not against flesh and blood, it is a spiritual battle. Revelation 12 says that the dragon goes to make war with the remnant and we war using the divine strategy received by the 7 Spirits of God. We are going to receive knowledge, wisdom, counsel, might (remember those flames running along the fuelling lines) and we are going to be operating from a throne-room position, not an earthly position, moving in the Spirit of Might.

So, the transition bridge of this week also involves a change of mindset and focus. You have prepared in the natural. Now comes the time for focus on being a worship warrior in the Kingdom of Light as God sends the sons of Zion against the sons of Greece:

Zec 9:13 For I have bent Judah for Myself as My bow, filled the bow with Ephraim as My arrow, and will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and will make you [Israel] as the sword of a mighty man. Zec 9:14 And the Lord shall be seen over them and His arrow shall go forth as the lightning, and the Lord God will blow the trumpet and will go forth in the windstorms of the south. Zec 9:15 The Lord of hosts shall defend and protect them; and they shall devour and they shall tread on [their fallen enemies] as on slingstones [that have missed their aim], and they shall drink [of victory] and be noisy and turbulent as from wine and become full like bowls [used to catch the sacrificial blood], like the corners of the [sacrificial] altar. Zec 9:16 And the Lord their God will save them on that day as the flock of His people, for they shall be as the [precious] jewels of a crown, lifted high over and shining glitteringly upon His land.

There is a worship leader called Victoria Orenze who released a song called 'Ascend'. It is a powerful decree by the worship warriors. We worship and decree to bring His justice, His order, Light and Truth. Arise to your appointed position in the ranks of the army of the Lord, warrior saint.

Please watch it and learn to sing it. Some of the words are as follows:

Creation groans in anticipation
For sons to stand up and take position
No more time for procrastination
We must Arise.

We ascend the highest mountain
It's the mountain of the Lord
By the Blood
By the Word
By the Spirit.

We bring order
We bring fire
We bring light to a dark generation
We bring judgement
We bring justice
We bring truth to a dark generation
We are called
We are chosen
We are priests of the order of David etc
