

The Spirit and Power of Elijah ~ TRANSCRIPT
7 December 2024

AUDIO VERSION

Hello my precious brothers and sisters.

Well I have been on quite a journey in the Word since I last released a podcast. I have continued to release songs, and on the 1st December the Lord highlighted to me that I had written 42 songs, and He connected that to the 42nd generation. Now for those of you who don't know what the 42nd generation is, a man called Bill Britton wrote on the 42nd generation. It is to do with Matthew chapter 1, where the generations are listed, 14 generations from here to here, 14, 14, adding up to 42 generations, but when you count the actual generations that are listed, there are 41. So the 42nd generation is the seed of Christ, those who are born of His Spirit and come forth in His image in the earth. There has been a 42nd generation being prepared in the wilderness, getting ready for the time of their appearing.

So I had this awareness that these 42 songs I had written by 1st December could well be connected to the breaking of waters announcing a birthing. Waters symbolize words and songs are flowing words, and when your waters break, as any woman who has been pregnant knows, there is no stopping them - it comes out in a massive gush. I would say that 42 songs released, basically from 31st October until 1st December, which is the month of November, is quite a gush of waters. I have continued to write songs after that but I am sharing with you from my journal at that point where 42 songs had been written, recorded and uploaded. They haven't all been released yet because I had to stagger the release dates, one day after the other. You may have noticed that there is practically a new song every day on Spotify. My Fresh Sound Releases Telegram podcast gets the new songs hot off the press, so they have some of the songs after the 42nd song as well.

So I am going to really be sharing out of my journal, as it goes along, so it may be a message that circles in on itself, because the Lord has kept me in certain places in the Word, taken me to other places, and then gone back to the first place. The main place where He has had me is in 1 Kings 18, teaching me about this 42nd generation or this corporate vessel that comes forth in the Spirit of Elijah. I want to share what the Lord has been unfolding about all this to you.

Now the first thing that I noticed, or that the Spirit highlighted, was that it was only when the prophets of Baal had been silenced that Elijah could hear the sound of the abundance of rain. So let's just read that in 1 Kings 18:40,

"Elijah said to them, take the prophets of Baal, let not one of them escape, and they took them, and Elijah took them down to the brook Kishon and slew them there." Then the very next verse says, "And Elijah said to Ahab, get thee up, eat and drink, for there is the sound of an abundance of rain."

So once the sound or the frequency of the prophets of Baal had been silenced, the true prophet could hear the sound of the abundance of rain. Why is that significant? Because the prophets of Baal contribute to the chaos and confusion of frequency in the heavenly realms, and prevent us from hearing the true sound that is being released from the throne of God. That is why it is so important that God sends the Spirit of Elijah before the great and terrible day of the Lord, in order to clear out the second heavens and the chaos and confusion in the realm of spiritual hearing and frequency.

Once the false prophets had been silenced, the drought was broken and the season changed. Once the unholy sound in the earth was brought to zero, then the spiritual sound of what was about to be poured out could be heard. The heavy latter rain will not fall until the prophets of Baal are exposed as powerless and then silenced. And notice it was the people who had woken up and realized who was really God that took the prophets of Baal down to the brook Kishon and Elijah killed them all there.

The Spirit of Elijah silences the frequency of the prophets of Baal. It is significant where they were taken to be slaughtered, because Kishon comes from a root word meaning 'to set a trap or a snare'. That is exactly what the prophets of Baal did to God's people. They ensnared them in false doctrine, false prophetic word and they captured their spiritual hearing and seeing, so that they could not connect to the throne of God.

When he had announced to Ahab that he heard the sound of the abundance of rain, Elijah went up to the top of Carmel and assumed a birthing position. He crouched down and put his head between his knees; that is a birthing position in the ancient world, and he prayed the word he had just decreed into manifestation. So he heard, then he decreed, then he interceded or birthed, then what he had decreed was seen (the first fruits of it) by his own eyes, then he decreed again to Ahab to go home, because he was going to get flooded out. Then the rain began to pour and Elijah began to run.

There is a very importance sequence there. There are two decrees separated by a birthing intercession and travail, then the first fruits are seen by the one who has decreed it, and then there is the release of the full manifestation.

So I want to take you to something that has been happening currently in prophetic circles, which I found from the distance I was viewing it to be extremely significant and interesting. There is a prophet called Emma Stark who works for the Glasgow Prophetic Alliance, she is a Scottish lady, and she prophesied that God had given her a vision of Him striking President Trump in the face, knocking out his teeth. It was a kind of violent prophetic image, and she shared basically that God was going to be dealing with Trump.

I cannot describe to you what rabid responses that prophetic word elicited from the Babylonian prophets. There is a council of prophetic elders, self-appointed, who has got themselves together and placed themselves at the head of the pyramid of the prophetic world in the church. How they got there is by their own setting up, and they immediately denounced Emma Stark for releasing that word, declaring it to be a false word, because it did not edify, but what had actually happened, as I watched from a distance, was that Emma Stark had basically kicked one of their holy cows.

Now I knew that the word from Emma was a true word, because God has also spoken a similar thing to me, as those of you who listen to my podcasts will know, because He spoke about golden calves and removing them, and spoke about idolatry amongst His people.

As I was alerted to the initial ramifications of the release of that prophetic word, I said to the Lord, “Are the false prophets of the Babylonian church being exposed now before silencing?” I started to ponder on that, and to watch the situation, because it is important to notice in the story in 1 Kings 18 that it was the prophets of Baal who exposed themselves as false prophets by their behaviour, by what they said, and what they did, as they ranted and raved and danced and leapt on the alter, and cut themselves with knives for basically 3 watches of a day, without any form of response from heaven.

This is very significant for us who know that God is coming to clean up His church - what is actually unfolding in the prophetic arena of the church in this day. That is why it is significant that it was the people that seized the prophets of Baal and brought them down to the brook Kidron, so that Elijah could silence them.

Elijah had said to the people, “How long will you halt between two opinions?” It was basically a word of rebuke. That word opinion is ‘divided mind’, and this is what happens to you when you partake of prophetic words that are not truly from the Lord, even though the person may declare that they are God’s ‘hot off the press’ words. When you swallow, and consume, and feed on the false prophetic, it brings about the manifestation of a divided mind, and a house divided against itself cannot stand.

It is really important that you stop halting between two opinions, and there are many in the remnant that are still carrying and clinging to words that a spirit other than the Spirit of Truth has released over their lives. They have nurtured and fed and stoked those prophetic words, and yet never seen any manifestation from heaven of those words. We are in a day when the Spirit of Elijah is coming to the remnant who really wants to follow after God and cleaning up their spiritual storehouse, so to speak.

The second thing that Elijah said to the people was, “Come near to me”. We have to draw close to the Spirit of Elijah. It is not a comfortable encounter. The Spirit of Elijah is confrontational, it is not a word that soothes, it is a word that exposes and rebukes. And the church at large has been so fed by the prophets of Baal, thinking that this is a true word of God, because no true prophets were around for at least 3 years during this time in 1 Kings 17&18. A large proportion of the church doesn’t know what a true Word of God sounds like and feels like. There has been so much flesh manifesting in the church and parading itself around and calling itself ‘the spirit of truth’.

So Elijah says to the people, “Come near to me”. You have to gird your loins to come near to the Spirit of Elijah, to have a close encounter with the Spirit of Elijah, because it is extremely uncomfortable, unpleasant, and it is going to cause you to realize some things that you did not know before. When Elijah the prophet rebuilt the altar of the Lord, that word rebuild in the Hebrew means ‘to heal’, it is the word rafa. The altar of the Lord needs to be healed, because the people of God have unknowingly been worshipping at demonic alters, because they have been fed by the prophets of Baal, who have eaten from the tables of Jezebel.

So this is a really serious time, and Jesus is not playing games, because it is time for judgement to begin at the house of God. There is the need for a John the Baptist vessel, or a corporate vessel carrying the Spirit of Elijah before Christ’s second coming. We need a corporate vessel moving in the Spirit and power of Elijah. It is the ministry of divine authority, and God is calling and choosing such a corporate vessel. We have to know whether we are hearing our souls or our spirits, so when He calls a vessel, He cleanses the vessel of all the false prophetic, all the false doctrine.

You know, John the Baptist was the one Jesus identified as the Elijah that came. He was a Levite by bloodline, his father was a priest, but he came out of that and was trained in the wilderness by the Spirit of God and brought up by the Essenes at Qumran, who restored him to the true Word of God. So John was actually the first believer. He was the first 'called out one', the 'ekklesia', that is what 'ekklesia' means, 'the called out ones'. In many places in the New Testament where it is translated as the word 'Church', it is the word ekklesia, which is actually a called out one; called out of compromise, called out of Babylon, called out of error, called out from under the control of the religious spirit that always operates arm in arm with Jezebel.

Then the Holy Spirit began to focus on what were the significant characteristics of the arrival of the Spirit of Elijah. Both John the Baptist and Elijah came suddenly on the scene. They were prepared in secret, and then revealed suddenly with an explosive message that triggered change.

Now 1 Kings 17:1 describes Elijah as a Tishbite of Gilead. The actual words used there in the Hebrew means 'a temporary resident or a sojourner or foreigner'. So Elijah is the epitome of what we are supposed to be in the earth. We are strangers and temporary residents, we are citizens of another kingdom. Nothing is known about Elijah before 1 Kings 17. We don't know where he came from, or where he was going to. He suddenly arrived, the same with John the Baptist. He went into the wilderness around age 2-2½, and he only appeared again at the Jordan at age 30, for the public to see him. They didn't know who he was, where he had come from, or what he was about, and he had an explosive confrontational message. That is what the Spirit of Elijah operates like.

When he went to speak to Ahab, he said, "God, before whom I stand." Well he is not standing before God in the natural, he is standing before Ahab, but what he is declaring is that he is positioned before the throne of God spiritually, and he is operating for an audience of One. This corporate vessel that is going to go forth in the Spirit and power of Elijah, is going to stand before the throne and operate for an audience of One. There will be no fear of man in them.

Now when Zechariah, John's father, had his tongue loosed to prophesy after he had named John, in Luke 1, he said in verse 17 about John his son, "He shall go before Him in the Spirit and power of Elijah and turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord." That is the function of the Spirit of Elijah; in the age in which we live is to make ready a people prepared for the second coming of the Lord. The Spirit of Elijah ministry is a ministry of realignment, and he is demonstrating a father influence. It says in Deuteronomy, God told His people to 'train up your children in the way that they should go'. The book of Proverbs is a book of David training up his son in the way he should go - holiness, righteousness and wisdom of the upright.

That is why it says in Malachi 4, that God will send Elijah before the great and terrible day of the Lord, to restore the hearts of the fathers to the children and the children to the fathers. Now I want to give an interpretation of that verse that I received from the Holy Spirit. When it says, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children', it is talking about those who are in a fathering position in the church, those who are pastoring, who have authority of people, who are shepherding people, they are supposed to be fathering them. They are supposed to be training them up in the way they should go, using the Word of God.

So the Spirit of Elijah is going to work with the fathers, and bring forth new fathers who have a heart for the children to walk in holiness and God-fearing lifestyles. Then the Spirit of Elijah also turns the hearts of the children to the Father in Heaven. Until the Spirit of Elijah is operating in a corporate vessel, there will not be true fathering in the body of Christ in the sense that it needs to be done; to announce a change of season, and a time of cleansing and a moving out of a Babylonian false belief system, governed by the false prophetic and the religious spirit.

Now in Luke 1:80, it says John was in the desert until the day of his showing unto Israel. That word 'showing' is G323; it actually means 'the act of exhibition'. Now an exhibition is when an artist displays to the public the works of art his hands have been creating in secret. It is, in a sense, a birthing, because during a birth what was being prepared in secret is going to be displayed openly, and this was done when John was age 30 - the age when a son is considered mature enough to take over his father's business, but which father? Not John's earthly father, John's Heavenly Father, because the Spirit of Elijah had been fathering him in the desert until he was ready to be released into ministry, operating in the Spirit and power of Elijah.

That is why God has been preparing you in secret, far from the public eye, in the desert, until the day of your showing, or exhibiting. Remember Malachi 3, "Those who feared the Lord spoke often to one another, and they shall be My jewels in the day that I openly declare them," or exhibit them; it is the adoption or setting in place of the sons of the Father in Heaven.

The Spirit of Elijah never brings a smooth comforting word. He brings a confronting word - REPENT AND REALIGN. The anointing of the Spirit of Elijah sets the spiritual atmosphere in order, breaks demonic strongholds over people's minds, and exposes and silences the false prophetic.

Now unfortunately, when you bind yourself to a false prophetic word, it makes your path crooked, and therefore the true blueprint of what God had designed for your life cannot come forth. That is why the Lord said a couple of messages back, He is restoring to ORIGINAL DESIGN.

Then the Holy Spirit pointed out to me that little Samuel's positioning in the temple triggered a realignment of the priesthood. He stood before the Lord in his linen garment, and ministered to the Lord, and that positioning triggered the wicked priesthood being removed by God and their father Eli also being removed from the earth.

God will remove the wicked in leadership and the fathers in the body of Christ who have not done what the word decrees, to train up those under you, the sheep in your care, in righteousness and the wisdom of the just. They are supposed to turn the disobedient to the wisdom of the just. Look at the state of the church - how a large percentage of the church has started to condone relationships other than a man marrying a woman! How much of the church does not condemn premarital sex? How much of the church is condoning and welcoming the ordaining of homosexual priests? How much of the church is silent on these crucial matters of obedience to the Word of God?

Eli did not turn his disobedient sons to the wisdom of the just. He very weakly chided his wicked sons, but then he let them continue their appalling unrepentant behaviour. He should have removed them from the priesthood for their behaviour. When those in authority do not operate in righteousness and wisdom, teaching those under them to turn and repent, God positions a holy manchild vessel, like a Samuel. Samuel was 3 years old when he was taken by his mother to the temple, like Elijah, who in the third year of drought, suddenly appeared, set in place by God to restore the hearts of the children to the Father. Samuel's life demonstrates the Spirit and power of Elijah operating and cleansing the temple. One word of judgement was released by that little boy Samuel to Eli, and the cleansing of the old temple priesthood was triggered.

When Jesus was cleansing the temple with a whip, He was operating in the Spirit and power of Elijah. It is part of the manifestation of the Seven Spirits of God, and I shared about this in a previous message, which was called Glorious Things Unfolding Part 2. I just want to read a little section from that, because then I don't have to repeat it and get it wrong.

=John operated in the Spirit of Elijah, and it is the same Spirit of Elijah that God promises in Malachi 4, that He will send. So what is the Spirit of Elijah? Is it a Spirit? Do we get the spirit of Paul and the spirit of Luke and the spirit of Elisha? Now we know we get the spirit of Jezebel; we know that those who operate in the spirit of Jezebel behave and show the same fruit as the physical Queen Jezebel who lived. They operate in the same spirit or behave in the same way. But what actually is the Spirit of Elijah? Is there a Spirit of Elijah that gets sent every so often to earth to inhabit a person, and then when his job is over, goes back to heaven and waits and visits earth again at a later time? Are there other spirits that are wondering around waiting to be sent?

The Holy Spirit showed me something really interesting. What is termed the Spirit of Elijah is actually a description of a portion of the Seven Spirits of God.

It is a portion of the mantle that Jesus carried, a certain forerunner job - to do the job of a herald. Now remember in Pomegranate Bride Part 4, I explained the Seven Spirits of God, and there is a priestly portion and there is a kingly portion. The central lamp of the menorah lampstand is the Spirit of the Lord. Then on the left-hand side you get the Fear of the Lord, the Spirit of Counsel, and the Spirit of Revelation. What the Spirit of Truth has shown me is that what we call the spirit of Elijah is actually those 3 of the Seven Spirits; the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord, the Spirit of Counsel and the Spirit of Revelation, all of which are the priestly portion of the Seven Spirits of God.

Now we know that John the Baptist walked in these things. He walked in the fear of the Lord, he called people to walk in the fear of the Lord, and he operated in the counsel of the Holy Spirit. He not only was counselled by the Spirit himself, but he counselled others. When they said, "What shall we do?" He said, "Repent and bear fruit in keeping with repentance". The spirit of counsel was flowing TO John and THROUGH John.

He also operated in the Spirit of Revelation. He had revelation of who the coming Christ was. He had revelation that when he saw the Spirit descending like a dove, and remaining on a man, that this would be the Messiah that was coming. So John the Baptist operated in those 3 spirits of the 7 spirits of God. This is what the term 'the Spirit of Elijah' means. When God says He will send Elijah before the great and terrible day of the Lord, He is releasing a forerunner company, a herald company, who, like John the Baptist, will prepare the way for the coming of the Lord as the Son of Righteousness on the day that burns like an oven.

What is this forerunner company to do? They are marked by the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord. They operate in the Spirit of Counsel, and are able to tell people how to make their lives right with God, to repent and bear fruit in keeping with repentance, and they operate in the Spirit of Revelation.'

Okay I am going to stop there, because I could go on and on, but we are still going through my journal notes.

As I said, when Jesus was cleansing the temple, He was operating in the Spirit and power of Elijah, and interesting that he plaited a 3-fold cord, and there are 3 of the 7 spirits that compromise the Spirit of Elijah. The ministry of the Spirit of Elijah is the ministry of confrontation, removal of the false, cleansing, turning things upside down and right side up. Things that have continued for decades and generations are stopped and realignment to the plumb-line of Truth is restored. The false is exposed as such, they actually expose themselves.

The Spirit and power of Elijah in operation confronts and angers the religious spirit, and the spirit of Jezebel always works with the religious spirit. This is why the prophets of Baal were fed at her table. The one who feeds you controls your input and your output. Then the prophets of Baal regurgitate whatever Jezebel has fed them, and because the people have not heard a true prophet for years, they assume this is a word from God. Notice that the prophets of Baal operate with much fanfare and hype, a display of counterfeit anointing which is not from the Spirit of God. It is a display of the flesh in demonic fervor. When a true prophet of God comes on the scene, it incenses the spirit of Jezebel and the religious spirits.

Now in this day, we know that the Spirit of Elijah has begun to operate in the body, because we can see Jesus is cleansing the temple both personally and corporately. I mentioned the whole to-do with the confrontation concerning the word from Emma Stark. A whole body of so-called recognised prophets have spoken out publicly against her.

Her response in another video is amazing. She does not defend herself, she knows the Lord spoke to her. I think the word is called 'When Prophets seem to Disagree', or something like that.

A true prophet of God will always call people to repentance, confront and rebuke and decree judgement, and God's judgements are always redemptive.

Now, what that prophetic council of elders used to criticize and tear down the word that was released, was the scripture that says, 'prophecy is for edification'. Now that is true, true prophecy is for edification, but what does this mean? Because it doesn't mean to build up, to stroke, to make you feel good, and to basically spew fleshy words over you. Does it mean you feel good when you hear prophecy? No. To edify means to build up or construct. It is connected to the word 'edifice', a building, but when you are edifying something, you first have to tear down and cart away all construction that is not according to the architectural blueprint, and maybe even fire some workers. Jesus overturned the tables of the money changers, and drove them out of the temple.

Where builders have not adhered to the divine Architect's instructions, and where they have cut corners and done their own thing, there has to be removal before building up can happen. This is why Jeremiah was given an anointing to tear down before building and planting. Let's read this. Jeremiah 1:10, very interesting. This is also the Spirit and power of Elijah operating. The Spirit and power of Elijah is what operates in true prophets.

God says to Jeremiah,

"See, I have this day set you over nations and over kingdoms, to root out, to pull down, to destroy, to overthrow, to build and to plant."

Now there are 6 actions described there that Jeremiah will be doing, and two thirds of them are negative; root out, pull down, destroy and throw down. A whole bloodline of priests had to be removed and then Samuel the prophet could be raised up to function, and his first prophetic word was one of rebuke and judgement to Eli, the 'Ahab' amongst the priesthood.

The Spirit of Elijah is the Spirit of true prophecy. In your life personally it is coming to work, and this is what it does. It roots out all false prophetic words which you have clung to. It pulls down all false belief systems and strongholds. It destroys demonic holds upon your mind and spirit. It overthrows false authority in your life. When you put yourself under a false prophet and embrace a false prophet's prophetic word, you are under false authority. You should be under the authority of the Word that comes from the Throne of God.

After the rooting out, pulling down, destroying and overthrowing, then the Spirit of Elijah will build according to the righteous plumb-line of God's Word and release the true prophetic into your spirit and plants truth.

What does this mean practically for you? How does it play out? Your eyes will be opened to see false prophetic words that have spoken over you, maybe decades ago, suddenly you will understand that you have believed something that is false, things you had hoped to come to fruition for years, without success, will be exposed to you by the Spirit of Elijah as being completely false. False prophets you have followed and admired slavishly will be exposed as such, and areas where you have listened to your own soul, and thought it was a word from God, will have the light of truth shone on them.

So it is a very uncomfortable time when the Spirit of Elijah goes to work within us, because there is a sense of wasted years, of being foolish, for having not discerned false prophecy, but you have to remember there has been a long season in the church where the prophets of Baal have held sway. God is sending light, the light of one day will be as the light of seven days, so that you can see how dimly lit the church scene was before. It hasn't helped that they put up strings of fluorescent bulbs, artificial lighting, to try and light up the area. It doesn't help that they have put up disco balls and flashing lights during the worship, the church scene has been very dimly lit, as far as the light of Truth goes, for quite a while.

Once you can see clearly, you can repent and return to the True Fountain of Living Waters. We, who have been a part of the prophetic movement, have drunk drops out of broken cisterns, crafted by men led by other spirits, not the Holy Spirit.

How do you know? Because the Holy Spirit always directs towards holiness, always calls us to come out from compromise and lukewarmness and fleshy behaviour. The Holy Spirit does not dress a pig in a linen garment. The Spirit of Elijah will call it what it is - unclean, and drive it over the cliff with the demons that have been holding your mind captive.

The Holy Spirit does not employ the marketing techniques of the world and say, “the Lord has given me direction and blueprint to do this and this to increase the numbers in the church”. A Spirit-led worship leader will not say, “Let’s release smoke on stage in the worship to create atmosphere”. This is the soul speaking. It produces fleshy worship and false manifestations from spirits masquerading as the Holy Spirit, and in that atmosphere, the false prophetic will come forth. So what has the church been doing? Why do they believe the world can teach them how to run a successful ministry?

The Spirit of Elijah declares a change of season. It is time for judgement to begin at the house of God, and God’s judgements are always about removing sin, dealing with the unrepentant, removing the soulish, the crooked and the serpent’s embedded lies, and restoring to original design. Rooting out and pulling down is part of RESTORATION TO ORIGINAL DESIGN.

Don’t you want to know who God originally designed you to be? Don’t you want to know what His original blueprint for your life really is? To know that, He has to remove the layers of veils of false prophetic words that have been spoken over your original design, muffling the frequency so you cannot hear and discern what the Throne of God is really saying about you. Destroying and overthrowing is about removing demonic strongholds in our belief systems, and counterfeit authority. Once this is complete, then building and planting can take place.

It is very interesting the word for ‘build’ does mean to build, but it also means ‘to obtain children’, in other words ‘to be fruitful, and the word ‘plant’ in Hebrew means ‘to strike in or fasten or establish’. God wants to establish you and make you fruitful, and that is why He has to root out, to pull down, to destroy and to throw down, and utterly pull to pieces anything the false prophetic and the believing of lies has done in your life. It is the work of the Spirit of Elijah to do this.

So the Spirit of Elijah is working both personally, in a holy remnant, so that they can become more holy. He is preparing a corporate manchild vessel that will operate in the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord, the Spirit of Council and the Spirit of Revelation, and come suddenly on the scene to aid in cleansing the temple of the Lord.

So I really pray that that has been a blessing to you, it continues to be a blessing to me, especially as we are seeing these things unfold, the judgements of God and restoring of His Body to original design happening in our time, in real time in our day. There are ministries who are going to have their lampstands removed because they have refused the conviction of the Holy Spirit over many decades, to stop sinning and turn to living in righteousness. That requires repentance, that requires (if you are a leader) public confession, but men cling to power, they become addicted to the praise of men and so they refuse the conviction of the Holy Spirit decade after decade after decade, but now God is coming to judge His church. It begins with the House of God, and the Spirit of Elijah is very busy already, first personally in our lives, which you must welcome, even though it is uncomfortable, because you will then be restored to original design.

Do you know that the prophet Jeremiah lived and ministered during the time of the righteous King Josiah? Josiah was murdered but for 27 years, from the start of Jeremiah's ministry, for 27 years, he was under a righteous king, and only after Josiah was murdered did Jeremiah begin to be horribly persecuted and imprisoned and all that sort of thing. So God raises up righteous kings; remember Josiah tore down all the altars, which was the public manifestation of personal idolatry and sin, and then Jeremiah began to prophecy and deal with the hidden heart sin of the people.

So the Spirit of Elijah wants to come and work in you, no matter how long you have been working or knowing or walking with the Holy Spirit, because there are some things that need to be torn down, rooted out and destroyed so that original blueprint can be restored and you can be set in place, planted where God originally intended you to be planted.

So may grace from the Lord be yours, to surrender to the ministrations of the Spirit of Elijah, so that you can be part of the corporate vessel that carries the Spirit and power of Elijah, and operates in righteous authority in the earth.

Amen.
