

Sharpen Your Sickle

Saturday 5 October 2024

AUDIO VERSION

Hello my precious brothers and sisters.

Well, it has been quite a while since I last shared a message, but wow, I have dealing with an awful lot of stuff on this end. I don't want to go into it and waste your time on that, suffice to say that it was a very pressurized, difficult time when one needed the wisdom of God and not the wisdom of man to rightly navigate situations.

I first want to say before I start my message that we are all aware of the incredible devastation caused by Hurricane Helene as it passed through the Carolina's and Tennessee. It has been absolutely devastating and there has been a disheartening lack of provision and rescue from the government side of things. We just pray for all those people; there are many Bible believing saints in that area, many preppers, many people going off the grid and trying to live off the land, and have had their places absolutely devastated. Please continue in prayer for all those who have lost loved ones, for all those who are standing bereft of everything except the shirts on their backs, that the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, would be their portion.

I have had such a sense of that zipping up of which God was speaking in a previous message, and we are now in the Fall Feasts of the Hillel Calendar. Yesterday was the second day of Yom Teruah, or Rosh Hashanah, of the Hillel Calendar. They are now entering the 10 Days of Awe; today it is the 3rd day of the 10 Days of Awe in the Hillel Calendar.

God is still joining dots. It is amazing how the assassination of the head of Hezbollah was done on the Zadok Yom Kippur/Day of Atonement, and his successor was assassinated the next day, and the person who replaced him, the 3rd one, was assassinated the next day. There have been a lot of very pivotal things happening. I think it was yesterday, on the 4th, there was a huge solar flare, a very strong one, and in a couple of days we really will be feeling the effects of it in the earthly realm, as far as earthquakes, volcanoes, and that sort of thing, so please be praying for safety, for wisdom, for direction. The Holy Spirit tells us the things that are going to happen in advance, and reminds us of the things that Jesus has said, and that is exactly why Jesus sent the Counsellor to us.

For the last 5 days or so, I have been hearing an instruction in the Spirit, and that word was “Sharpen your sickle”. Of course that is connected to harvest, and it immediately reminded me of the Scripture in Revelation that I dealt with in the last podcast, of the one who is like the Son of Man sitting on a cloud, with a crown and a sickle in his hand, and I spoke to you of how this, for me, represented those who had been conformed to His image, who have been crowned with authority and anointing to rule and reign in the spiritual realm, and who are now being released, with a sickle, to bring in the harvest.

So when the Lord said “Sharpen the sickle”, I was very much aware that if your sickle is blunt, you can be sent into the harvest field and you will only cause damage to the harvest, because you are sawing away at the stalks, and you can't cut through them, and you can't harvest them - and of course these are people that we are talking about that are being harvested for the Kingdom!

A sharp sickle is extremely important, and what is this likened to? The Holy Spirit pointed out to me that part of sharpening your sickle for the harvest is reminding yourself and learning by heart Scriptures concerning salvation and the surrounding Scriptures that support that. We all know John 3:16, of course, "For God so loved the world", but what else is there that we should be learning, that we should have at our fingertips?

In a message called Eagle Logistics, which I released about 3 years ago, the Lord reminded me of a vision I had of a very, very stormy scene with a lighthouse shining into the darkness and very choppy waves, and little boats trying to make it to shore, and there was a man standing on the shore with a megaphone shouting "Flee to the Name of Jesus! There is no other Name under heaven by which men might be saved." Of course, the second part of that is a Scripture, but you need to know it by heart.

As the Lord was reminding me in Eagle Logistics about that, He brought the armour of God to mind, and I saw a saint dressing for the day, and putting his armour on. When it came to the belt of truth, I saw him put on what looked like a toolbelt, which had different handyman tools hanging from it. The Holy Spirit began to explain to me that each of these tools represented a particular scriptural truth which would be used for the assignment of the day, and he emphasized that I needed to brush up on the relevant Scriptures about salvation and baptism, because I needed to have them at my fingertips, just like tools in a toolbelt.

Mark 16:15 says,

"And He said to them, Go into all the world and preach openly the good news to every creature. 16 He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not will be condemned."

So, the Holy Spirit is really reminding us of that in this late hour. Jesus spoke about tares amongst the wheat in the field, and how the tares would be allowed to grow to full height and maturity, but at the time of harvest, angels would be sent to tie the tares into bundles and to cast them into the fire, and then to harvest the wheat. Now the interesting thing is that word translated 'angel' in the Greek also means 'messenger or pastor'. So, God is sending messengers into the harvest field with sickles to reap the harvest - and of course their sickles are sharpened for the task.

I have a friend called Heather whom the Lord often uses to speak to me about what He is doing with the forerunners, with the tip of the spear, because obviously when you launch a spear, it is the tip that goes ahead of the rest of the spearhead, arrives at the destination first, is planted in the target. My friend Heather has been sent by the Lord to North Carolina. The Lord moved her there 2 weeks before Hurricane Helene hit. Now God was not unaware that the weather warfare hurricane was going to hit. Heather had put much prayer into the location where she was to move to, she looked in many different towns in North Carolina, and some appealed to her a lot more than others, and then in a process of weeks, God did some refining and got her to yield more and more, and surrender more to His will, and then He showed her exactly where He wanted her to buy a property, and He showed her the exact property. It was not a place that she would ever have chosen to live, nor was the property one that she would have chosen, but He gave her a vision of Himself there on that property. So, she was obedient, she bought the property, and she moved there 2 weeks before the hurricane struck.

I was quite worried about her because, as you know, the power went out in large areas of that region for some days, and eventually she managed to contact me. I discovered that she had been incredibly divinely protected. Because her property was in a hollow surrounded by hills, and she had a forest of trees around her house, the intensity of the hurricane passed overhead, and those higher up on the hills were struck more severely, and she was almost as if in the hollow of His hand hidden there.

She did have a couple of trees come down, but no major damage, her creek didn't flood up to her house, her house didn't leak, she actually was amazingly protected. Because of having no power and no internet or cell coverage for some days, she had no idea what it looked like around her. When she finally got into contact, she said to me she was absolutely horrified at the level of the devastation, but she also understood the level of protection on her life.

Why am I telling you all this? Because Heather has been divinely and precisely planted as a tip of the spear in that specific place where people who have lost everything, their loved ones, their pets, their homes, they have nothing but the shirts on their backs, and Heather is divinely planted in the midst of the harvest field.

I want to say to you, Beloved, God is not going to necessarily plant you as part of the tip of the spear in a comfortable end time place. It is not going to be a place of your choosing. It is not going to be a place that looks like you can spend the rest of your life on the porch watching the sunset. He is going to plant you where you are needed, in a harvest field that He knows is going to come to full ripeness at a particular time, and for very specific reasons. He is going to send His messengers where the harvest needs to be reaped.

Think of Genesis 1; it says the earth was without form or void. I want to actually expand that Scripture for you, and read it with the meanings of the Hebrew words. “The world was without form,” it was in confusion, waste, desolation and a wilderness, and it was an indistinguishable ruin; (that is what the word ‘void’ means in Hebrew), and ‘darkness’ or misery, destruction, death, sorrow and wickedness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved, hovered, brooded, He released a frequency upon the face of the waters, and God said, ‘Let there be light.’”

So, when the earth was without form, utterly waste and devastated, like North Carolina, Tennessee and various other areas are, God didn’t say, “I am not going in there, it is utter chaos”, His Spirit hovered over the chaos and the devastation. God used His mouth to release light into a place where there was dense darkness. That word ‘light’ comes from a root word meaning ‘to set on fire, to kindle’. Your arrival in a place, or your presence in a place that goes into dense darkness, causes light to break forth from within you. The contents you carry within your spirit pierce the darkness and the Lord will divide the light from the darkness.

The harvest in this end time will not be reaped in huge stadiums with professional bands playing and a preacher behind a podium, taking up the collection. It is our lives that will speak as the dense darkness is upon the nations and it will draw people to Him. His glory is going to arise on us, and kings will come to the brightness of our rising. Like moths to a flame, hopeless, scared, lost people will be drawn to the light of Christ in you.

Think about Psalm 91 where it speaks about being hidden under the shadow of His wing. It says you won't need to fear all the devastating things that are coming, 'a thousand will fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand'. What is that depicting? It is depicting darkness, misery, destruction, sorrow surrounding you, and you are standing in the middle of it, but it is not touching you, and you are the light in the midst of the dense darkness.

What is the end time harvest message? 'FLEE TO THE NAME OF JESUS! There is no other Name under heaven by which you might be saved'. It's not the name of any other quasi-religious leader that will save you, it is not the name of an incoming president, or the name of your favourite preacher, it is not the name of any official in government, ONLY THE NAME OF JESUS WILL SAVE US DURING THE GREAT TRIBULATION.

On 2nd October, the Summit for the Future signed a pact between many nations, with the plans that they have for going forward. That tells us that it is highly likely the great tribulation season has begun, and I think all over the world where people are experiencing flooding and devastation and loss and catastrophic weather events, they perhaps are all wondering whether this is the time of tribulation.

You know, the Name of Jesus is the only Name under heaven by which you secure salvation. If you want to draw money out of your bank account at an ATM, you have to use your own card with the right name on it. You can't just use any bank card to get money out of your account. Now God has a rich treasury, a fountain of salvation in heaven, and if you want to withdraw from that fountain, you have got to use the right name to access it. Now the present pope has been preaching and pontificating, as only he can, that many roads lead to God. Well, this is just a blatant lie and he is an apostate, because the book the God he claims to serve has had written for people to know the way states clearly there is no other name under heaven by which men might be saved. God has only provided one way. So, you need to really have that clear in your head and have the Scriptures in your toolbelt to support your explanation when you go into the harvest field, because there is so much deception and so much mixture. God provided ONE way to get back to Him, and it is the path consecrated by the blood of Yeshua, His Only Son.

Sharpen your sickle, Beloved, you are going to be bringing in the harvest amidst the weeping and the darkness that surrounds you. No pre-tribulation rapture; God needs your boots on the ground, there is an end time harvest to be brought in. Christians are going to be tested as to the strength and the depth of their roots in Jesus. You know I was watching news about some of the stuff that was going on in North Carolina, and I saw a story about a Christian woman who had climbed onto her neighbour's roof with her mother and father, and her 7-year-old son, to escape the flood waters. They were waiting to be rescued but before they could be rescued, the roof of the house began to collapse, and her parents and her 7-year-old son were swept away to their deaths. The woman was swept into a whole lot of flood debris and got wedged in it, and it saved her. I was actually reading the posts on social media by herself and her sister, who came to bring her home, and what were they doing? They were giving glory to God for the fact that their parents and her 7-year-old son were at that time dancing before the throne of God.

So, this is your opportunity to shine in many different ways, Beloved. It is not that you won't suffer the loss of material things; God is not promising that at all, but His hand is upon you, with protection until you have completed the end time assignment He has for you. There is a reason why God has been saying, "BRACE YOURSELF" so many times in the last months, as I have shared with you. There is a hurricane up ahead! Maybe disasters in the natural will hit your region, but there is definitely a spiritual hurricane up ahead, and you need your spiritual eyesight protected and clear.

On my website there is a message called 'Bound to the Light' which I wrote in October 2021. 'Bound to the Light During Flight', where God gave me a picture of one of those World War II pilots with those old-fashioned round goggles with leather around them protecting his eyes. Those goggles protected the pilot's eyes from shrapnel or poison gases during warfare. What are the poison gases our spiritual eyes need to be protected from? I would say it is the slanted media reports, the lies that are making their rounds in the news, and the definite indoctrination that is underway in the internet realm.

Remember the Titanic that went down, and there was a man who swam around asking people if they were saved in those icy waters. He was in the middle of a disaster but he recognized it was a field white unto harvest. He had his pilot goggles on, he could see straight ahead that there were souls ready for harvest, and he did not consider his own life dear to him. Many times he was given opportunities to climb into lifeboats that came to rescue the people, but he would not do it because there were still souls that he needed to reach. He was like Paul who said, "In town after town the Spirit confirms that chains and suffering await me, but none of these things move me. I do not consider my own life dear to myself." He wanted to complete the course that God had given him to run, because he wanted to hear, "Well done good and faithful servant."

Now God has a course for you to complete in the midst of the chaos and the destruction and the trouble and the weeping, and all the things that are going to unfold in the days ahead. You are a messenger being sent with a sickle into the harvest, and God is saying to you, "Sharpen your sickle", because this is where you find yourself. You look around where you are, you can't see the harvest, but the harvest will make itself plain as disaster and destruction unfold, and you will see with your clear spiritual eyes the harvest field around you that needs to be reaped. Your toolbelt around you, of the scriptural truths and the Scriptures, will be at your fingertips just when you meet the souls that are ready to be reaped for the Kingdom.

You know Jesus sent out harvesters into the harvest field when He was here on earth. The first fruit sending was described in the gospels. Mathew 28:18 Jesus said this,

“All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. 19 Go then and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 Teaching them to observe everything that I have commanded you, and behold, I am with you all the days to the close and consummation of the age. “

Mark 16:15 describes the same scene but He gives a little more detail. He says,

“And He said to them, Go into all the world and preach and publish openly the good news to every creature. 16 He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned. 17 And these attesting signs will accompany those who believe: in My name they will drive out demons; they will speak in new languages; 18 They will pick up serpents; and even if they drink anything deadly, it will not hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick, and they will get well.”

So, there we have a description of what these harvesters are going to be doing. Now, as any farmer knows who brings in a harvest, there is a first fruits harvest, there is the main harvest, and then there is the after-crop, the last harvest, and that after-crop harvest is NOW, Beloved.

Yesterday my watch fell off my arm, on 4th October. I don't know where it fell off, because I only noticed later on when I wanted to know what the time was, that my watch had gone, and I felt like the Lord was saying, “There is no more time, time is almost up”.

I had to think of the Scripture in Matt 20 where it described all the different waves of harvesters that were sent into the vineyard, not the wheat harvest but the vineyard, yet it shows the principle of waves of harvesters. Let me just read to you. Matthew 20 describes 4 waves of harvesters sent out; 1 at 06:00, 1 at 09:00, 1 at 12:00, 1 at 15:00, and then in verse 6 it says, 'And about the eleventh hour...' now we know the eleventh hour is kind of the last little bit of time that is left, but it is actually referring to five o'clock in the afternoon, '...He went out and found still others standing around, and said to them, Why do you stand here idle all day? 7 They answered him, Because nobody has hired us. He told them, You go out into the vineyard also and you will get whatever is just and fair.'

So, we see that there is a group of people, almost an after-crop of harvesters that are employed to go into the harvest field, they only worked for a short time, before darkness fell, and the time when no man can work had come. All through the ages, since the time of Jesus, there have been waves of harvesters sent into the harvest. I mean even when Jesus spoke about His coming and the separation between two in a bed, He spoke about 2 men in a field. Obviously, it was about harvest and now it is the last wave of harvesters that is being sent out.

The Lord reminded me, you know often He gives me these little songs to sing, and he reminded me of a message called Reaping as we are Going Home, and I actually want to read that to you because it is really important.

'I was watching a tribute to a person who had passed away, and the man speaking spoke of Eric Liddle, the runner whose life story and passion for holiness is told in the movie Chariots of Fire. Eric was quoted as saying, "When I run, I feel His pleasure." If you have never seen this movie, I would highly recommend it. Each of us has a specific race to run, certain assignments to do for Kingdom purposes. Jesus wants us to run our race with perseverance, looking away from all that would distract, running to win the prize of the upward calling in Christ Jesus...

Now I am just going to say an aside here, you know thinking of my friend Heather in North Carolina. She is surrounded by devastation, planks of wood, upturned trees, flattened houses, cars in trees, all sorts of things, but she has to look away from all that would distract and find the treasure that is there. The treasure that is there is the soul standing right in front of her, the harvest that needs to be reaped. This is why God brought her there. This is WHY God plants you where He plants YOU, for the harvest of souls; souls are God's treasure. The things of this earth will pass away, but the spirit of a person lives forever, and God is wanting them to be brought out of the kingdom of darkness into the Kingdom of light. So, we have to look away from all that would distract as we run this harvest race, in order to do this.

I am carrying on reading the post now:

'We need to be continually refreshed with the living water that flows from the throne of God. I would like to share a poem which the Holy Spirit gave me. It comes from the verses of Psalm 46.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city that is built by the King.

There is a river that flows deep within causing the faithful to sing.

There is a river that is rising each day waters to swim in and not be afraid.

There is a river that flows from the throne bringing fresh life to His own.

*Turning our backs on all that is past pressing on into the fray,
we fix our eyes on His beautiful face and walk in His holy way.*

*Looking now not to the left or the right,
our instructions they come from the throne,
forsaking all for His kingdom cause,
we are reaping as we are going home.*

He is in our midst and we are not afraid,

He is here and we shall not be moved,

For He will help us, His word proven true.

He is doing wonders, His servants are too.

Be still and know that the Lord He is God,

His plans and His purpose unchanged.

Oceans may roar and the stars they must fall but He'll be glorified over all.

As I received this poem, I saw a vision of runners getting dressed in their running gear, and the next scene was in the harvest field and these same runners were harvesting ripe heads of wheat. They were looking intently for any that were ready to be harvested. Their focus was fixed and they were not chatting idly to each other, but each was very busy bringing in the harvest. At times they would join in singing the words of the poem I was hearing, singing it like an anthem for a marching army. This is what the last leg of running the Kingdom race looks like, running the race with patience, moving with clarity, focus and attention to detail, unwilling to miss one ripe sheath of wheat.'

Wow, that really touched my heart again! So, Beloved, it is not wrong to make preparations for yourself. In actual fact, as we can see from these floods, having water and food stocked up for about 3 months is actually great wisdom, because the official sources of supply have run dry and are not coming to help, and it is wisdom to have these things. A lot of these people, after Hurricane Helene, were stranded in houses in high places, and were very, very thirsty because they don't have clean water to drink. You can get a thing called a Life Straw that allows you to drink water that is not clean, and there is a filter in the straw. That is a really good thing to have. You know these are practical things; we do still live on earth, and it is good to do these preparations but we must not have our whole focus on trying to save ourselves.

We have to change our focus from self-preservation to harvest. Didn't Jesus say, "Whoever wants to save his life, will lose it, whoever loses his life, for My sake, will find it and life eternal." So, what was He talking about losing His life? He was talking about taking up your cross daily, denying yourself, following Him, and working for the cause of the Kingdom, not just being focused on your own temporal needs and your own little perfect life that you are building. So changing focus from self-preservation to harvest is what is on the Lord's heart at this time.

You were born for this hour Beloved, and you were prepared for this hour of harvest. I don't know where on the planet you are, but God prepares, sharpens, sends and plants the tip of the spear exactly where He knows there will be darkness breaking out, dense darkness. He knows when light carriers will be needed, and He prepares and teaches them, and gives them spiritual pointers ahead of time.

The Lord brought to mind an old post I wrote where I saw harvesters with lanterns fastened to their belts, and sickles in their hands, walking in the fields, as dusk was falling, obviously an after-crop of the harvesters. Their loins were girded and their lamps were burning, and they were waiting for the Master's return. Is your lamp burning? Is it well stocked with oil? Do you have extra? You are needed in the harvest field, Beloved.

You know, God doesn't have to send you far, although He might. In the midst of increasing chaos and disaster, the harvest field presents itself all around us. Is your sickle sharp? Do you know by memory the important Scriptures pertaining to salvation? Do you perhaps have small Bibles or New Testaments to give away to those whom you bring to the Lord? Or perhaps you could print out some encouraging Scriptures on business cards to give away, things like: The Lord will never leave you or forsake you; things like that.

I want to just read to you from a message called 'The Light Bearers', which I wrote in 2021. An interesting thing was that when I went over this post, it really spoke to my heart in this very time we are in now. It was a message from 8th February 2021, so I just did some maths and I worked out how many days from the 8th February 2021 to today, 5th October 2024. Do you know what it was? 1335 days – my word! That number is mentioned in Daniel 12, where it says 'blessed are those who get to the 1335 days'.

I am not saying that this time we are in now actually connects specifically to that Scripture, because I know it is talking about the time of tribulation, but I felt like the Lord was highlighting that those who go out into the harvest field at this time are blessed.

I want to read to you from The Light Bearers, as I end off.

'On 8th February 2021 I was praying in the Spirit waiting for the Lord to speak, and I saw before me a head of grain, hanging heavy and ripe, and I zoomed in on one of the kernels on the head of grain, and it burst open before my eyes, and displayed its contents. All I saw was sparkling light. It was a light that moved and pulsed, and contained life.

*The Lord began to speak. "The harvest now is of my light bearers, not only do they carry lanterns into the darkness, (here He was referring to a word called Piercing the darkness, written in 2020), but they are lanterns. My light bearers arising and shining in a dense darkness that can be felt. As they separate themselves even more as holy unto me, the light apportioned to them grows exponentially. Many have been wondering why I have positioned them in such dark places, such dark and difficult situations. It is for this very moment, and as I call them to arise and shine with the glory I have given them. My supernatural light stored up within shall be manifested through My holy vessels in this hour. Their well-spent lives will be become a light for others, lighting up the entrance to the narrow way that leads to life, beacons of hope and life in a season of despair and death. My remnant lanterns shall shine and the oil within shall be replenished supernaturally. Each morning as they seek My face and My counsel, the dew of sparkling light shall fall upon the faces of their hearts, and they shall be empowered to stand and shine forth the light of My truth. They shall be guide stones at the crossroads, in a time when many will be losing their way, groping like blind men in the darkness that pervades every arena of life."

I saw refuse bins crammed full of useless trappings and piles of baggage cast aside at these crossroads He speaks of, and weary people free at last from the load of all that has weighed them down, standing with eyes closed and faces lifted, soaking in the light of simple truth. "This is the way, walk in it. Turn not to the left or the right. Walk straight on with fixed purpose and you will come to the source of this great light", is what the light bearers tell them.

I see men wringing their hands and saying, "I don't know what to do". Their faces are grey with the pallor of fear and despair, and someone says, "Go to this person, they have clarity. They speak wisdom, they have sound counsel and understanding. They will show you the way to go".

Daniel 12:3 says, "Those who are wise shall shine like the brightness of the sky, and those who turn many to righteousness shall shine like the stars forever and ever."

When you turn someone to righteousness, you are harvesting in the harvest field. Isaiah 32:2, it is a wonderful Scripture for this time, says,

" And each one of them shall be like a hiding place from the wind and a shelter from the storm, like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a great rock in a weary land [to those who turn to them]. 3 Then the eyes of those who see will not be dimmed, and the ears of those who hear will listen." Once again in the harvest field.

I see one such person speaking earnestly to another who is lost. They take their right hand and press firmly into their palm, and the person opens their hand to reveal an impression of a cross. Then the light bearer leans forward and writes a quick sign on the person's forehead with their finger, and I looked closer, and see it is also a cross, but realized it is the pictograph of the Hebrew letter Tav, which looks like an X, and I understand that they are being marked on their right hand and their forehead with the mark of Him who is the Aleph and the Tav, the first and the last.

This is the last great harvest reaped soul by soul as the darkness swirls around. Men and women snatched from the jaws of the destroyer, as the light bearers shine their light and truth. Jesus said, "I am the Light of the world. He who follows me shall not walk in darkness, but have the Light of life".

Then the scene vanished and the words of an old song rose up in my heart.

Shine Jesus shine, fill this land with the Father's glory Blaze Spirit blaze, set our hearts on fire Flow river flow, flood the nations with grace and mercy

Send forth Your word Lord and let there be light.

You know, the prerequisite for light-bearing is burning. The seven lamps before the throne burn and produce light through their flame. Beloved, there is a filling season, a brief trimming season to prepare the wicks and remove the old charcoal of a past burning, and then there is a moment of igniting and setting alight, then there is the burning season.

Building a place for His presence is the filling season. That is the time to receive, receive, receive. We have expanded our inner capacity to store the oil of the Spirit. The more oil you hold, the longer your light burns. The wise virgins had extra oil.

Do you remember the vision Zachariah had of the candlestick with the olive branch continuously supplying oil? These are the sons of the oil, who stand before the Lord of the whole earth, the angel explained to Zachariah. It is in standing before the Lord that we receive a continuous supply of oil. Anchor yourself in the Holy of Holies. The lighting of our inner wicks is achieved by the sound of the Words of God's mouth. There was a sound like a mighty rushing wind in Acts 2, and then the flames of fire appeared on the heads of the disciples. They were ignited, set aflame, as they received the baptism of the Holy Spirit and fire.

*I was praying about this and telling the Lord I wanted the words of my mouth to be spirit and life, like the words of His mouth, and He said this, "Shut your ears to the words of men who fade as flowers and fall as grass. My words stand forever. They never fall to the ground. If you want to impart enduring truth that speaks, no matter when it is heard or read, then you must shut yourself into the Oracle, that is the Holy of Holies, where only My sound resounds."

As He continued to speak, I realized He was speaking words of a poem. Here are the words He spoke:

*My sound resounds, permeates and penetrates
My words are dew for you, falling sound on waiting ground
They rest and speak, week after week,
Sound by banquet served silently, sinking in to resonate in those who wait on Me.
Glory cloud within, without, imbues in you My power and might
As bearers of My light.
My glory dwells, My glory stays in those who have chosen holy ways,
Now set apart and sealed and marked,
as those who heard, obeyed,
And hearts so hungry for My touch have sacrificed and given much To win the place where they now stand, the chosen sons of My right hand,
the ones who will wield authority to open gates to My glory.
To heal the sick and raise the dead,
To speak My life, not just words read but words which pierce and crush the foe
And open gates and let them go,
To help the weary, feed the faint, to bear the honour of every saint who walked this path in days gone by
To come outside the city gate,
Be numbered now 'mongst those who wait
For Him alone,
who served no man, nor bow to evil,
Clean of hand and heart they stand.
My holy vessels filled with light,
Who walk by faith and not by sight,
And undeterred as darkness falls,
They gaze on me and so endure.
For very soon I Am will come,
The time is near and reigning Son returns to gather up His own
And bear them safely to the throne,
So, shine they must, and shine they will,*

Positioned on My holy hill,
And loving not their lives to death,
They overcome through holiness.'

Sharpen your sickles Beloved, you are in the harvest field, and it is about to make itself plain. May the Lord bless you and add increase to what I have shared with you.
