

Exploits & Martyr's Crowns

Wednesday 25 September 2024

AUDIO VERSION

Hello my precious brothers and sisters,

Just a quick reminder about the purple mountain comet which will be shot out of the Sextans constellation on the 27 September, which is Friday, and it will move quite quickly towards Bethulah or Virgo, where the sun is on the left arm of Bethula, and that comet will meet and have a convergence with the sun on 9 October 2024, right at the hand of Bethulah, and Mercury will be very close by.

So keep a look out for that; you will be able to see the purple mountain comet just before dawn in the east above the horizon. It has apparently become extremely bright and will get brighter, so that is very exciting news, as far as being able to see it.

We know that it is a herald of the Day of the Lord; it represents the Manchild Company and it is surely a sign in the sky at this time.

Now I want to share with you a scripture, Daniel 11:32, which we very often quote to one another. We usually leave out the third part, and we quote the second half, which says, “the people who know their God shall prove themselves strong and shall stand firm and do exploits.” It is talking about the time when the antichrist is ruling. Actually the first part of verse 32 says, “And those who violate the covenant he shall pervert and seduce with flatteries,” so there are some who allow themselves to be seduced because they have already walked in unfaithfulness towards the covenant with God, but there are those who stand firm and do exploits. We, as the remnant, really want to endeavour to make sure that we are a part of that company.

What is not discussed a lot in the circles of church these days is what verse 33 says, Daniel 11:33, “And they who are wise and understanding among the people shall instruct many and make them understand, though some of them shall fall by the sword and flame, by captivity and plunder, for many days.”

So the Word of God tells us that amongst the remnant that are standing strong and firm, and doing exploits, there are some who lose their lives and we have to prepare our hearts for this possibility. It is not only those who are foolish that lose their lives in this time that is ahead. It is also some of the remnant that are wise and understanding, and know what is going on, and are strong and standing firm - some of them are also going to lose their lives.

The Bible tells us there are 4 ways this is going to happen:

- By sword, which refers to war and murder
- By flame, which is obviously fire
- By captivity, which is imprisonment, unfair treatment in imprisonment and being brought to death in some manner
- By plunder, which is being taken advantage of and having things stolen from and possibly losing their life in the process

So the topic of martyrdom is something that needs to be talked about again.

Then verse 35 says something very interesting. We have just heard that when some of the remnant that are standing strong begin to be killed, they are joined by others who are hypocrites and join with flatteries, and then it says in verse 35,

"And some of those who are wise and understanding shall be weakened and fall," In the Amplified it says, "thus, then, the insincere among the people will lose courage and become deserters. It will be a test to refine, to purify, and to make those among [God's people] white, even to the time of the end, because it is yet for the time [God] appointed."

So we see that not only are some of the faithful, strong, firm remnant doing exploits, not only are some of them martyred but some of them become weakened because of those who have joined themselves with flatteries, and they fall. This is a refining process in the midst of the remnant that is losing some of its company to martyrdom; there is also a sifting to refine and to purify, and bring one to full readiness for the coming of the Bridegroom.

So we have to come to terms with the fact that these things are going to happen before they actually do, so that we are not knocked sideways and have the wind knocked out of our sails when these things begin to happen. We have to purpose in our hearts to stand firm. You remember the 3 Hebrew men who were thrown in the fiery furnace heated 7x hotter because they refused to bow to the golden idol that Nebuchadnezzar had made.

In Daniel 3:17 it says that they answered the king, "If our God Whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, He will deliver us out of your hand, O king. 18 But if not, let it be known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image which you have set up!"

Even if He does not save us, we will not bow... Beloved, we have to purpose in our hearts that this will be our response when we are faced with that decision, and we have to make this decision ahead of time, that we will not bow and we will not betray our Lord, even if the result is our death by some means or another. Now this is not a glamorous thing to talk about, it doesn't make one feel all warm and fuzzy, but this is the reality. There will be great martyrdom in the end times and in the tribulation. That is one of the primary purposes the antichrist sets out to achieve, to trample the people of God, and to overcome them.

So you have to determine now in your heart, how am I going to respond Lord? Just as well we spoke about how to kill the giants of unbelief and fear is a previous recent message!

Now this occurrence that happened with the 3 Hebrew men is written for our learning and our example because in Revelation 13, where it describes the mark of the beast being rolled out and a statue being built and those who will not bow and so on, exactly in the pattern that happened in Babylon with the 3 Hebrew men, tThose who will not take the mark will lose their lives, and in Revelation 13:10, from halfway through the verse, it says,

“Herein is [the call for] the patience and the faith and fidelity of the saints (God’s people).”

These saints are called to stand firm, to endure, to have faith, and to be faithful. Now I know those who believe in pre-tribulation rapture teach that these who are speaking are the ones who get saved after the rapture, but I am sorry to tell you that it is highly unlikely. The mark of the beast is at the door. United Nations, on Sunday that has just passed, had the Summit of the Future and there were a lot of laws passed about global governance.

The Lord said to me many years ago, just a whisper, I was busy doing something else, and the Spirit said to me, “You will be known as the dissenters”. I found that very interesting when I received a video today on my phone discussing this Summit of the Future and the decisions that had been made. In that document that they have brought into law and passed (I think it is 196 countries or something that have signed it), it speaks about the ‘dissenters’. It speaks about those who will not cooperate, who disseminate ‘false information’ and how they will be cut out of society and not allowed to access bank accounts or travel and all sorts of things.

We are here at this juncture; right at the beginning of great tribulation for the saints, so we must decide what our stance is going to be before we are faced with the situation. Herein is a call with a patience and faith and fidelity of the saints.

Then again in Revelation 14:12, “Here [comes in a call for] the steadfastness of the saints [the patience, the endurance of the people of God], those who [habitually] keep God’s commandments and [their] faith in Jesus.”

Wow, and then verse 13 of Revelation 14 says this,

“Blessed are the dead from now on who die in the Lord! Yes, blessed be says the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds do follow them!”

So it is talking about martyrdom; those who refuse to bow, who refuse to cooperate and take the mark of the beast so they can be part of the global citizenship initiative, the dissenters; those who are steadfast and endure, who keep God’s commandments and their faith in Jesus. It is a costly thing to have faith in Jesus during tribulation, but we have to purpose to be like those 3 Hebrew men – even if God does not deliver us out of your hand, we will not bow!

In Acts Chapter 20, Paul is on his way to Jerusalem and along his journey, faithful saints warned him not to go because it was dangerous. In Chapter 20:22 he says,

“And now, you see, I am going to Jerusalem, bound by the [Holy] Spirit and obligated and compelled by the [convictions of my own] spirit, not knowing what will befall me there— 23 Except that the Holy Spirit clearly and emphatically affirms to me in city after city that imprisonment and suffering await me. 24 But none of these things move me; neither do I esteem my life dear to myself, if only I may finish my course with joy and the ministry which I have obtained from the Lord Jesus, faithfully to attest to the good news of God’s grace (His unmerited favor, spiritual blessing, and mercy).”

So Paul is on this journey, and every town he stops in, the Holy Spirit says to him, “You are headed for imprisonment and suffering”. He makes peace with that, it doesn’t move him, he keeps going because he is bound by the Holy Spirit to complete his course and his journey. The next town he gets to, the Holy Spirit warns him again; “Imprisonment and suffering are waiting for you Paul, prepare your heart”, and he is unmoved, because he doesn’t esteem his life dear to himself, but his primary focus and purpose is to finish his course with joy, that he can hear, “Well done good and faithful servant”!

Beloved, that is the outlook and the perspective we need to have, and we need to pray into this now, so that it is rooted in the foundations of our heart, so when the things happen that severely shake mankind, and men's hearts fail them for fear with the things that are coming on the earth, we remain unmoved by the prospect of imprisonment and suffering.

That word 'suffering' is 'thlipsis', it means 'tribulation'. Paul knew it wasn't going to be an easy destination, it wasn't going to be an easy outcome, but it didn't move him at all, because his life was hidden with Christ in God, and he was determined to live for the praise of His glory, no matter what happened to him personally. We have to come to the place where we are able to say that, Beloved, or we are going to be amongst those that were described in Daniel 11, who fall away. The insincere amongst God's people, fall away.

We want to remain and be part of those who stand strong and do exploits and even when some of our precious remnant brethren lose their lives for their faith by sword, by flame, by captivity or plunder, are we still going to stand firm? Are we still going to be unmoved? Yes, we grieve for those we love, but they have just stepped through a door into eternity, how glorious! It is graduation. If you are chosen by God to face martyrdom, the person who is the instrument that sends you to heaven is only an instrument for your graduation into glory. You don't need to be afraid, perhaps one could even thank them. Wow! Such a different outlook to the prosperity gospel, to the me-mine-more-more-more. I must decrease and He must increase - John the Baptist had the right perspective.

Let's look at how Revelation 13 & 14 are laid out, and what information they contain. Revelation 13 is the rising of the beast system and persecution that begins for those who will not bow. In Revelation 14, suddenly it mentions the 144 000 on Mount Zion; the first fruits who are marked with His name and the Father's name. So we see that some are being marked with the name of the beast and some are being marked with the Lord's name and with the Father's name; two names on their foreheads. That is interesting because the double portion indicates that these are the first born who are ready to take over their Father's business.

What is the Father's business? It tells us in verse 6. "Then I saw another angel flying in midair, with an eternal Gospel to tell to the inhabitants of the earth, to every race and tribe and language and people. 7 And he cried with a mighty voice, Revere God and give Him glory, for the hour of His judgment has arrived. Fall down before Him; pay Him homage and adoration and worship Him Who created heaven and earth, the sea and the springs of water."

So this angel is bringing a gospel, an eternal gospel, not a temporary gospel, to all the inhabitants of the earth, and when the beast is saying, "Worship me, worship the beast, fall down and give me glory", the angel is instructing to revere God and give Him glory. Now the 144 000 on the heavenly Mount Zion, not the earthly Mount Zion, they are the church of the first born, the first fruits unto God and Lamb, and this is the message they carry; revere God, give Him glory. You are being asked to bow and worship the beast but the hour of God's judgement has arrived. Worship GOD and fall down before HIM, worship the Creator, Him who created the heaven and the earth. The hour of God's judgement has arrived, according to who you will worship, and whose name you are marked by.

Then there is the second angel who declares the falling of Babylon the great, who made all the nations drink the wine of her passionate unchastity or idolatry. In Revelation 14:9 another angel announces that whoever pays homage to the beast and his statue, and permits his stamp be put on his forehead or hand, will drink of the wine of God's wrath.

So, we are clearly told to worship God and fall down before Him. Even if we should lose our lives, we will not worship the beast or pay homage to him. In verse 14 of Revelation 14, John describes a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud one resembling a Son of Man with a crown of gold on His head, and a sickle in His hand. This is talking about the last great harvest, and when is that happening? It is happening in the atmosphere and the environment of the mark of the beast being rolled out, and people being put to death for refusing to take it.

During this time, there is One who resembles the Son of Man - who is this? Doesn't 1 Corinthians 13 say, "When we see Him we will be like Him, for we will see Him as He is." This is a company that resembles the Son of Man. They are crowned, which means they have authority, and they have a sickle in their hand and they are going forth to reap the last great harvest. In verse 15, the instruction is given to go and do it. An angel came out of the temple sanctuary calling with a mighty voice, “Put in your scythe and reap, for the hour has arrived to gather the harvest, for the crop is fully ripe.”

You know, when the crop of wheat is fully ripe, the heads get heavy and they fall down, they bow, but tares are stiff and stand upright, and so all those that are bowing to the Lord God the Creator of heaven and earth, even in the midst of what is being rolled out with the beast system and punishment and tribulation for those who want to stand firm and be faithful to God, even in that time there are people who are being brought into the Kingdom, and they are being brought into the Kingdom by a company who resemble the Son of Man. They are sent out; during the hour of His judgement there is a harvest going on. When that harvest of souls is complete, then there is the instruction to harvest the fruitage of the earth and then there is the wine press of God’s wrath.

So all these things are happening while the saints are still on the earth. We have to understand this. We can’t think that God is just going to whip everyone out of here before that last great harvest is brought in.

Let’s go and read Joel 3: 13-14,

“13 Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe; come, get down and tread the grapes, for the winepress is full; the vats overflow,” here again is the description of first the harvest of wheat, and then the treading of the grapes, so first the harvest of souls into the Kingdom. Then in verse 14 it says, “Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of the Lord is near, or at hand, in the valley of decision.” I have shared with you before that that word ‘decision’ is ‘charuwts’, H2742, and it means ‘a threshing sledge’. Now a ‘tribulum’ is a Roman threshing sledge. So tribulation is about separating the wheat from the chaff. This valley of decision is the valley of tribulation, and there are many who have to make a choice in this valley – are they going to bow and worship and adore the beast and have his name put on their foreheads or hands, or are they going to bow before the Creator of heaven and earth?

So Joel 3, which is a really powerful prophetic end time book, mentions this end time harvest going on in the midst of end time events. Joel 3:16 says,

The Lord will thunder and roar from Zion and utter His voice from Jerusalem, and the heavens and the earth shall shake; but the Lord will be the hope of His people and a strength of the children of Israel."

In Joel 2 it describes the army that is standing on the mountain. Verse 11 says, "And the Lord utters His voice before His army, for His host is very great, and [they are] strong and powerful who execute [God's] word. For the day of the Lord is great and very terrible," So multitudes in the valley of decision and the Lord roaring from Jerusalem and uttering His voice is the issuing of instruction to His army; He utters His voice, He releases frequency and sound over His army that are camped like the dawn upon the mountains, a great strong people that has never been seen before. There is a release of a mighty end time harvest army right in the midst of the unfolding and unrolling of the whole beast system.

Now in 2020, I did a series called the Dove Chronicles. I don't know how many of you were with me in those days, but I would like to read to you from Dove Chronicles no. VI, and VII, part 1&2, where the Lord discusses martyrdom. I have had the person who helps me with my website put up a zipfile of the whole Dove Chronicles for download on my Storehouse Page. You can download all 8 parts of the Dove Chronicles, and I would really encourage you to go through it and read it, maybe print it out and bind it into a book, because there is much that is extremely relevant for this very place we find ourselves in Kingdom history.

Today, because of the topic the Lord has had me share from Daniel 11 about the people being strong and doing exploits, but some are going to fall by the sword, etc. We want to hear the Lord's heart about martyrdom.

We are headed into days of great glory, in the midst of persecution and suffering. While the man of lawlessness is doing his best to crush the true church, the people that know their God shall be strong and do exploits. The one occurs at the same time as the other. This is why God has urged in recent words I have shared that we must 'act the man' and 'be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might'. Courage in the face of hatred and onslaught will be the order of the day. The early church considered it an honour to lay down their lives for the Gospel and Jesus Himself educated His disciples so that they were prepared for what was coming. He was not talking to the big crowd who hankered after His miracles. He was sharing with those who had given up everything to follow Him wherever He went. These are the ones who are hated by the enemy because he has nothing in them. May God grant us the grace we need to make peace with His perfect will concerning each of us, knowing that if He calls us to lay our lives down, the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the church., and we are granted the honor of joining that great company who have gone before us, overcoming by the Blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimonies AND loving not their lives unto death!

Now let me share what He spoke to me... I was sharing with a friend last week and suddenly I was shown a vision: I saw a dead dove lying on its back on the ground, and Jesus was crouching down and touching it tenderly, weeping copious tears which fell upon the dove's breast. I heard a phrase spoken: 'Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints'.

I ask Him, "Who is going to die, Lord?"

He speaks quietly, "Many of My doves are going to die... Not all at once, but even as Mary and Joseph brought two doves when they presented their manchild in the temple, so too the unveiling of the manchild will be accompanied by the laying down of the lives of many of My doves. They go willingly, surrendered fully and determined to glorify Me in life or in death. And the fragrance...Oh! The fragrance..."

As He said this, I saw such a strong thick cloud of incense rise heavenward that it is almost impossible to breathe; the fragrance was so sweet and so powerful as it rose to the throne. Then He continued quietly:

"The glory must be accompanied by a cloud of incense from MY altar of worshippers, for no man can stand in the glory. And these ones...."

He touched the dead dove very tenderly as He spoke, "These ones have said, 'Do with me what You will, Lord. Only let me glorify You. Let me be a part of You receiving the reward for Your suffering. Let my life bring You joy!' And because they trust Me and yield themselves fully to the mystery of My perfect will, they will become part of the rent curtain that reveals the ark of My glory in the Heavens. They become part of the sound that says, 'Father forgive them. They know not what they do.' Because of these, My pearls of great price, cast down before the swine, blind eyes will be opened to see Me, deaf ears will hear the gospel of My Kingdom and the sickle will plunge into the ripe harvest, even as the heads of My doves fall to the ground. This is the fullness of the number required to balance My scales. This is the time those beneath My throne cry out for. Dove feathers carry weight on My scales of justice, even as they float to the ground in a gentle shroud upon the fallen.

Know this, My doves – your times are in My hand and no strike shall fell you before your appointed time. Shelter beneath My wing and be at peace. You will each play your appointed part in the outpouring of My glory. Some are to steward portals with their feet on the ground of this earth. Others will take up their positions at heavenly gates. My heavenly and earthly armies work closely together now. I say again, BE AT PEACE. I have all in hand. You are Mine and no one can snatch you from My embrace."

Luk 2:22 And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; Luk 2:23 (As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;) Luk 2:24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons.

Mat 24:9 Then they will hand you over to suffer affliction and tribulation and put you to death, and you will be hated by all nations for My name's sake. Mat 24:10 And then many will be offended and repelled and will begin to distrust and desert [Him Whom they ought to trust and obey] and will stumble and fall away and betray one another and pursue one another with hatred. Mat 24:11 And many false prophets will rise up and deceive and lead many into error. Mat 24:12 And the love of the great body of people will grow cold because of the multiplied lawlessness and iniquity, Mat 24:13 But he who endures to the end will be saved. Mat 24:14 And this good news of the kingdom (the Gospel) will be preached throughout the whole world as a testimony to all the nations, and then will come the end.

Luk 21:12 But previous to all this, they will lay their hands on you and persecute you, turning you over to the synagogues and prisons, and you will be led away before kings and governors for My name's sake. Luk 21:13 This will be a time (an opportunity) for you to bear testimony. Luk 21:14 Resolve and settle it in your minds not to meditate and prepare beforehand how you are to make your defence and how you will answer. Luk 21:15 For I [Myself] will give you a mouth and such utterance and wisdom that all of your foes combined will be unable to stand against or refute. Luk 21:16 You will be delivered up and betrayed even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and [some] of you they will put to death. Luk 21:17 And you will be hated (despised) by everyone because [you bear] My name and for its sake. Luk 21:18 But not a hair of your head shall perish. Luk 21:19 By your steadfastness and patient endurance you shall win the true life of your souls.

Psa 116:15 Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his saints.

Rev 6:9 When the Lamb broke open the fifth seal, I saw at the foot of the altar the souls of those whose lives had been sacrificed for [adhering to] the Word of God and for the testimony they had borne. Rev 6:10 They cried in a loud voice, O [Sovereign] Lord, holy and true, how long now before You will sit in judgment and avenge our blood upon those who dwell on the earth? Rev 6:11 Then they were each given a long and flowing and festive white robe and told to rest and wait patiently a little while longer, until the number should be complete of their fellow servants and their brethren who were to be killed as they themselves had been.

Rev 2:10 Fear nothing that you are about to suffer. [Dismiss your dread and your fears!] Behold, the devil is indeed about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested and proved and critically appraised, and for ten days you will have affliction. Be loyally faithful unto death [even if you must die for it], and I will give you the crown of life.

Hab 3:19 The Lord God is my Strength, my personal bravery, and my invincible army; He makes my feet like hinds' feet and will make me to walk [not to stand still in terror, but to walk] and make [spiritual] progress upon my high places [of trouble, suffering, or responsibility]!’

This message is a follow on from my message concerning some of the doves being martyred and I will be sharing the Lord's instructions to them. I was very much aware that the topic of martyrdom would probably not go over well – it's not a topic people like to hear or even think about. However, I know that the Lord gave me that message specifically to prepare the hearts of those who are going to give their lives as martyrs in these end times. Some have known for some time that they will be martyred, but others are only being shown at this time that they have been chosen to wear martyr's crowns. Sometimes God keeps His cards close to His chest, both for our protection and to keep the enemy guessing.

Yesterday, He began to speak to me about those people who have just found out and I experienced what a shock it is for them, because they have been under the impression that they will be a part of the end-time remnant and God has given them detailed blueprints and plans to carry out for end-time Kingdom purposes to manifest in the earth. Some of these are end-time refuges and places of safety or teaching centres for new converts and they just don't understand how they can carry these plans out if the Lord is taking them home... and then there is the question as to why He would give them the blueprints and then say He's going to take them home before they are implemented fully. All the questions and lack of understanding is causing panic and great concern about their families and how will the families cope without them. I saw heads spinning and fear and many drawing back from their former faith-filled positions before the throne. There was a feeling of being sideswiped by this news. Understand, precious doves, that some people fall into the category where God will keep them safe from the hour of trial that is coming upon the whole earth (Rev 3:10). And others are appointed to lay down their lives as seed to bring in a hundredfold harvest of souls for the kingdom (John 12:27). Both companies are doing Kingdom business that is vital. They are just deployed in different departments of God's army. Those who are chosen to lay their lives down are part of the full number that must be brought in to complete the number of martyrs Heaven has recorded as necessary before God moves to avenge their deaths (Rev 6:10,11). Remember this - there is an hour of trial, there is the day of vengeance of our God and there is a year of His favor. The hour of trial is a very small amount of time in comparison to the day of His vengeance.

When God began to speak to me about these ones that are now realizing that they will be a part of those who give their lives as martyrs and I saw the panic set in, I saw Him take their faces in His hands as a Father would His terrified child and I heard the Lord clearly say to each saint,

"Look at Me. Look at Me. All will be well. You have time. You have time to set everything in order before I bring you home to glory."

Then He took me to the example of King David, who had such a heart to build the temple for the God he loved. He was instrumental in bringing the Ark of the Covenant back to Jerusalem and remember how he danced with all his might and fullness of joy as the ark was restored to Jerusalem. But God revealed to David that he would not be the one who would build the temple. It must have been a very confusing moment for David because God had given him all the blueprints – very detailed blueprints. What did David do when God revealed to him that Solomon his son would be the one who would build the temple? We find this account in 1 Chronicles 22:

1Ch 22:5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

That was David's response to being told that he would not be a part of manifesting the blueprint! His part allocated by Heaven was to make abundant preparation; to get absolutely everything ready for the one who would bring it to full manifestation. So there was a slight sharpening of focus and an increased clarity of spiritual sight, but then David threw his whole heart into preparing well so that his son Solomon would have everything that was needed to bring the heavenly pattern of the temple building to full manifestation!

To the doves that are being shown that you will lay down your lives as part of the last company of martyrs, the Lord wants to say to you:

"I did give you a blueprint, I did give you an end-time assignment that would be carried out in the days to come. Your part is the full preparation; your part is gathering together and putting in order everything that has to be included according to the pattern, so that it can be handed over fully prepared to the ones who will bring it to full manifestation. And then I will bring you home".

We see in 1 Chronicles 22:6 that David privately commissioned his son Solomon as he was gathering together all the materials for the temple:

1Ch 22:6 Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build an house for the LORD God of Israel. 1Ch 22:7 And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build an house unto the name of the LORD my God

And some of you have had it in your minds to build an end-time refuge, and they not just pie-in-the-sky ideas – God gave you those ideas. But just like David, God is bringing you final clarity concerning your part in fulfilling the pattern - and it involves the next generation.

1Ch 22:8 But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ...Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days. 1Ch 22:10 He shall build an house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his Father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever. 1Ch 22:11 Now, my son, the LORD be with you; and prosper you, and build the house of the LORD your God, as He has said of you.

After he had told Solomon that he would be the 1 to complete the pattern from Heaven, David carried on preparing abundantly. You can see this in 1 Chronicles chapters 23,24,25, right up to 28, all the preparations David did. He worked really hard and was very focused. He collected all the precious metals; he got all the wood and put everything in place. He even assigned the people their posts in temple service and organized the roster for the singers and musicians! Every little jot and tittle of the pattern preparation was done. And then David called a public meeting, which we read about in 1 Chronicles 28, when he assembled all the princes of Israel, all the princes of the tribes and the captains of the companies, all the mighty men and the valiant men. Then he stood on his feet and he announced publicly:

1Ch 28:5 And of all my sons, (for the LORD hath given me many sons,) He has chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. 1Ch 28:6 And He said to me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his Father.

I want to say to you, precious dove, God is showing you more detail and giving a refined focus, so that you understand you are in charge of the fullness of preparation. The Father has specific people (maybe it's your natural family who will serve the Lord or maybe it's just a brother or sister, son or daughter in the Lord) but God has a specific one to take over the blueprint and bring it to full manifestation and He will show you exactly who is to receive the baton. You are not going home before you hand over the pattern.

1Ch 28:10 Take heed now; for the LORD hath chosen you to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do it. 1Ch 28:11 Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlors thereof, and of the place of the mercy seat, 1Ch 28:12 And the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the LORD, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasuries of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicated things.... 1Ch 28:19 All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

I want to say to you, doves, you have been given a blueprint by the Lord. If you are appointed to get a martyr's crown, just like He did with His servant David, He wants to give you all the understanding in writing by His hand upon you. He wants to impart to you all the works of this pattern and blueprint, so that you can prepare abundantly and hand over all you have gathered and set in order fully prepared to the person that God has appointed to carry the full manifestation of these Kingdom plans.

1Ch 28:20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed: for the LORD God, even my God, will be with you; He will not fail you, nor forsake you, until you have finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

Can you hear how David is infusing courage and strength into his son Solomon with his words? David organized everything before he died; his house was in order, all was in place to complete that blueprint and everything that was needed was handed to Solomon. All he had to do was follow the plan. It's a little bit like when I go to the craft shop and I want to make a mosaic tray and I buy a kit which contains the raw tray, the mosaic pieces, the tile cement and all the instructions with pictures - every step, 1 to 10, which I need to carry out to produce the finished product. This is the kind of thing that David handed over to Solomon. And for you doves who will not bring to full manifestation the blueprint you received from heaven, God wants you to put it in order; to be fully prepared; to prepare abundantly; to get everything that is needed for its manifestation, along with clear instructions written down; with clear patterns that you can pass on. It is no good if half of the understanding is in your head that is going to be laid on the earth as you go home to glory!

This clear instruction and pattern is so that when your voice is not available to explain any longer because you have gone home to receive your martyr's crown, the person who takes over from you is able to fulfill the assignment according to the instructions received from Heaven. May the abundance of His overflowing peace and grace be your portion as you fully complete your part in His purposes!'

While I was meditating on this message, the Lord showed me a vision of Commander in Chief calling his troops in front of him. I heard him read out a decree detailing movement of a platoon commander to another position in another platoon. And as he went immediately to fulfil his new assignment, I looked at those who were left behind in the platoon. There was confusion and consternation on their faces because this was the person who had led and guided them; this was the skilled and trained person could showed them what to do. This was the person under whose covering they felt safe to operate in the platoon they were assigned to. But the minute that one soldier was moved, then promotions were handed out and new authority and power to operate within new metrons was granted. There was a shuffling of the troops and it couldn't happen; people could not step into the new positions of higher authority until the person who was the head of that platoon was moved out of the way. The increase in authority and the receiving of new metrons of power was precipitated by the sending away of the first senior officer. It seemed he was moved to a different position in a platoon which was out of sight and I knew the Lord was showing me this man represented a dove who was martyred, but that his death was not a waste or a tragedy because he was being assigned a heavenly platoon position, functioning in another section of the army of God in the unseen realm. Remember the apostle John was visited by a fellow saint when he was receiving revelation concerning the end-times. Those who go to be with the Lord are still very much involved in Kingdom business, even though we see little of what they do. Remember also that in a previous word from the Lord, He said the army of God on earth would be working closely with the troops of Heaven in these days.

Rev 22:8 And I, John, am he who heard and witnessed these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell prostrate before the feet of the messenger who showed them to me, to worship him. Rev 22:9 But he said to me, Refrain! [You must not do that!] I am a fellow servant along with yourself and with your brethren the prophets and with those who are mindful of and practice [the truths contained in] the messages of this book. Worship God!

So what the Lord was saying is be flexible. Yes, He will bend Judah as His bow and fit it with Ephraim and pit the sons of Zion against the sons of Greece (Zech 9:13), but the bending of Judah into a better shape requires flexibility. Ephraim was also Jacob's grandson, so in actuality he was the next generation, but both of Joseph's sons were counted as part of the 12 tribes even though they were a generation down the line. So Zech 9:13 contains a cross-generational plan depicted. One generation is launched forth from the previous generation who are conformed to God's blueprint as His bow. The Hebrew word for bow also means 'iris of the eye', so there is a depiction of the launching of Ephraim using the spiritual vision and revelation of Judah! So things might not be quite the shape you pictured or anticipated them to be. Let Him adjust your vision or bend your bow to spiritual 20/20 vision.

He also showed me a bullet leaving the chamber of a gun being shot into its target, leaving behind an empty space in the ammunition chamber. AS He gave this picture, He said 'a shot over the bows', which is a warning shot before the thick of battle commences if the enemy does not surrender. The martyrdom and taking home of the doves chosen for this honor is a shot over the bows to the prince of darkness. (interesting that the word 'bow' is used differently in this spiritual picture). That space left behind in the ammunition chamber was a signal to the other bullets in the chamber that their turn to leave the safety of the chamber was close at hand and that they are about to be shot to their assignment during the heat of the battle, each in their order.

Stephen was the first one who was launched heavenward, with the cry, "Father, forgive them; they know not what they do" and then all the other disciples were launched in different directions. The book of Acts tells us that severe persecution broke out after this and the church was scattered. Actually, it is recorded in extra-biblical documents that the disciples drew straws, being assigned to different countries where God was sending them.

Deployment can look a lot like scattering in the frenzy of the moment of launching. Deployment can look a lot like 'crushing the power of the holy people'; martyrdom can look a lot like the enemy is triumphing and achieving his goals BUT we have already passed from death to life at the moment of our baptisms. We were baptized into his death and we were raised with him when we came out of that water. Jesus also taught us that:

Joh 5:24 I assure you, most solemnly I tell you, the person whose ears are open to My words [who listens to My message] and believes and trusts in Him Who sent Me has (possesses now) eternal life. And he does not come into judgment [does not incur sentence of judgment, will not come under condemnation], but he has already passed over out of death into life.

One of the letters of John says we know that we have passed from death to life because we love the brethren; anyone who does not love his brother remains in death.

So expulsion from a home or geographical area can look a bit like purging and persecution, when in fact it is the Lord using the hammer in the trigger mechanism of the enemy's weapons to launch that bullet and shoot His fully prepared and sealed saints to their places of deployment in His end-time army, whether it be in the earthly or the heavenly realm. The enemy cannot threaten us with heaven! In the natural, the outbreak of severe persecution and the martyrdom of the saints can sound like the silencing of the lambs... However, all it is doing is stocking the ranks of the troops of Heaven with new soldiers, the voices of which cause an increase in the sound of the war cry from above to crescendo rapidly. It is triggering promotion and releasing new metrons of heavenly authority on a massive scale in the army of God on earth. Mantles are distributed for the remnant who know their God to do mighty exploits.

You know in World War 2, when the soldiers were and on the front line, firing at the enemy, if the one on the frontline fell, someone behind them stepped into that place. That is how the army of God functions in this endtime battle. As a wave of frontline troops go to receive their martyrs crowns, a new wave of anointed and appointed warriors step up to the plate. You cannot wipe out the people who already walk in eternal life. You may have moved them from one location to another - you may have driven them from their homes or the enemy through men even being used to launch them from an earthly to the heavenly platoon of the Lion of Judah's troops. But you cannot silence the sound of His roar! You cannot dampen the sound of the Blood as it sounds forth from the Mercy Seat, satan cannot change what is written in the volume of the Book (no matter how many 'new' versions of the Bible he concocts to placate sinful men) or sidestep the verses that speak of the heavenly court being seated and the books being opened and the judgment being given in favour of the saints (Daniel 7:22). The enemy cannot overrule that righteous judgment which dictates that the saints will possess the kingdom. Everything the enemy intends for evil – including the martyrdom of His doves, God will use for good for his kingdom and for the furtherance of his kingdom rule

The outcome of this great battle between light and darkness is not hanging in the balance; the scales are not perhaps tipping in favor of the prince of darkness winning. NO! The outcome was settled once and for all at Calvary. The Lamb that was slain – now, this was a masterful move by the One True God; to use the enemy's hand to strike the blow that would execute his own certain demise – that Lamb that was slain decreed, not in a whisper or a whimper, but in a shout of victory, the final verdict of the battle between good and evil. He released the judgment that the end time remnant army of Light will carry throughout the earth in these days – IT IS FINISHED. Once and for all. No appeal is allowed on this judgment. The battle has been won and Elohim is the victor. There will be no overturning of this judgment. Death has lost its sting. Nothing the powers of darkness can come up with will overturn this verdict! They may press forward and role out their schemes for a New World order for a time, and for 2.5 years it may even seem like they are tipping the scales back in old slewfoot's favour, and much blood may run in the streets. It looked like that 2.5 days when they crucified the Lord of Glory – that sealed tomb looked like a victory flag for the darkness horde... That was until the third day! Very early in the morning, Mary went to mourn at that very spot and discovered that grace and resurrection power was the order of the day. He had led captivity captive and led away a train of vanquished foes and given gift unto men.

During those 2 days, Jesus was not lying waiting on a stone slab; he was busy preaching to the souls in prison. He was busy taking back the keys of hell and the grave. This is exactly what the remnant army will be doing during the dark years – preaching to those held captive by the fear of death, spreading the gospel of the Kingdom fearlessly; overcoming by the blood of the Lamb and the word of their testimony, until the very moment of their deaths. And what is the word of their testimony? Are they going to talk about themselves and all their previous exploits in the church? No, they are going to do what Paul did. They will preach nothing else but Christ and Him crucified, They will shout out the judgments written! "IT IS FINISHED. There is no other name under heaven whereby man might be saved. The UN can't save you, your parents can't save you, FEMA can't save you and your stock market shares certainly can't save you. Flee to the name of Jesus! Why do you hesitate? Repent and be baptised for the salvation of your souls". And God will work with them confirming the Word of Truth by signs and by wonders. So, beloved doves, do not fear those who can kill the body, fear Him who is able to cast a man's soul into hell.

The continent of Africa has been adding its weight to the numbers appointed for the martyrs very quietly, day after day after day, and it hardly makes news on the world news media. Christians are being slaughtered like goats in central and north Africa on a large scale, as they are in Middle Eastern and radical Muslim countries - and of course, in places like China and North Korea, where there is severe persecution of the church. Their lives are falling to the ground and being yielded up for His glory, as seed to produce the hundredfold harvest. How is this glory shown and displayed by a life cut off? It is seen in the harvest of souls snatched out of the clutches of the satanic hordes in due season. It is seen in the outpouring of miracles of provision and healing amongst the ranks of the remnant.

Heaven's influence is not diminishing in the earth during the chaos that is presently unfolding. The focus for the church of Jesus Christ has changed from the building of massive monuments of personal ministry to the steady rise and fall of the sickle wielded by the nameless faceless multitude who seek not their own glory, as the harvest is brought in. The church age is over! We've got to get that! The kingdom reapers stand ready to plunge into the harvest. There is no more building of earthly kingdoms to elevate a man of flesh, but rather a sweeping up souls into the Kingdom of Light; the reapers empowered by the full backing of Heaven and the baptism of fire from the Holy Ghost.

You know there was a man whose name escapes me now, but he was told by God to purchase a ticket for the Titanic's maiden voyage - that was his last earthly assignment. And God knew that ship was going down. Did the Father warn this man what was coming? Perhaps, but there's no record on earth that he knew he had only hours left to live. He entrusted his life as a bond servant of Christ into God's capable hands and he stepped onto that gangplank and boarded the ship... and when that great ship went down, this brother in Christ swam around in the icy waters asking people if they had surrendered their lives to Christ. We know this because of the testimony of survivors, but that man kept swimming, refusing to be lifted into the life boats, kept treading water and asking any drowning soul he found that all-important question, "Do you know the Savior?", until finally, the cold and exhaustion sent him home to glory.

Beloved, who knows how God intends to take you home... perhaps you will be among those who remain; who were kept safe in the hour of trial that is coming on the whole earth, and that you will rise to meet Him in the air. But perhaps He's been speaking to you about the fact that you were chosen to be one of the endtime martyrs. Whichever it is, we are the generation that has been appointed to operate in kingdom business during this tumultuous time in world history.

Here you are, freshly emerged from your wilderness preparation season, because God is entrusting you with the dearest topic of His heart – the harvesting of the souls of men made in His image; the participation in the transference of lives from the kingdom of darkness into the kingdom of His dear Son. What an honor! What a privilege! And as those who have already passed from death to life, there is no need to seek to save the present parameters of your own life, because you are looking for a city whose Maker and Builder is God.

Jesus warned that if you seek to save your life, you will surely lose it, but if you lose your life for the kingdom, there will be great reward for you in heaven. So we are not of those who draw back in fear! We move forward, leaning the full weight of all our concerns and our lives upon Him who is able to keep us by his grace. WE are strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God and we are drinking of that living water continually, offering ourselves willingly in the day of His power as psalm 110 mentions. God has decreed He will be glorified in the earth. We know the end of the story and because we know our God, we do exploits in His Name. We can be still and know that He is God and that we live out our earthly existence in the palm of His mighty hand.

So, beloved doves, if you've been given beautiful blueprints for magnificent endtime kingdom projects and if you've been shown you may not be a part of the full manifestation, but that your portion is for the full preparation, I want to encourage you to be like David, a man after God's own heart. He pressed forward with the same passion with which he brought the ark back to Jerusalem. Prepare abundantly while you are alive and He will show you who to hand the full pattern with all the preparations to. And they can be trusted to bring it to manifestation for the glory of his Name, because they are handpicked by Heaven. Only the Lamb is worthy of glory and honor and power and dominion forever and ever, throughout all ages, amen. ‘
