

Word of the Lord received 13th Sept 2024

Audio Version

Hi precious saints.

The Early Barley Ripeness Calendar celebrated Yom Kippur from the evening of the 13th of September to the evening of the 14th. As I sat down to break bread and spend time with the Lord just as Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, started, He gave me a word. I am not going to comment on the word. I'm just going to share it as He spoke it. It concerns judgment beginning at His house.

“Know this daughter, every word written will be fulfilled. Men like to cut out chunks and fast forward to the good bits. They assume My hand would never move against My people... but they do not see what I see - the wickedness deep in the hearts of some who name themselves by My Name. The masks have been on long enough. Now is the time of unveiling and exposing the councils of men's hearts - and then you will see and know that I judge righteously. I know those that are truly Mine and who are impostors. I see the wolves in sheep's clothing. For a long time, I have held back My hand of judgment, but this has only served to embolden those with seared consciences. The time given for repentance has been used to dig deeper trenches to hold the sum of their evil deeds.

The wicked grow more wicked, and the Gospel of Truth has become the watered down, pseudo milk fed to the defiled and the unrepentant. I see no fruit of change in those marked for judgment, even though extra time has been given because of the cries for mercy of faithful friends and parents and spouses. And now the axe has been lifted and the trees have been marked, and the judgment will be executed speedily.

Suddenly men's lives will be snuffed out. One here, one there... until those who observe will hear only the thud of trees falling to the ground all around them, and the forest of so-called Christians be severely thinned out - and those who remain will tremble with the fear of the Lord, knowing that what they have witnessed week after week is the execution of My righteous judgments. Suddenly I come to My temple and suddenly the status quo is no more.”

The scripture I was given for this word is the whole of Malachi 3.

May the Lord give understanding and expand on what He has spoken. May His will be done, and may His name be glorified. Amen.
