

The Joshua Within

Hello, my brothers and sisters, it is good to be back with you. This message was released on 19th of February 2025.

Last time I shared with you about the two different portions that make up the Tip of the Spear, and that one portion doesn't cross into the Promised Land personally, and the other portion, the Joshua portion, does. I spoke about being quite content if the Lord should take me home, if I had completed my task.

Since I last spoke to you, the Lord has given me a lot more understanding of what He meant, and I would like to share that with you, up to what I have now received, but I just want to pray first.

Father God, You are the source of all wisdom, the source of all understanding, the source of all counsel. I just submit myself to you now, and Father, I pray that you give me the power to coherently communicate that which You have shared with me, that I share it in a way that is easy to understand, that it would not just be information but that there would be impartation Father for those who hear, and that they would not only hear what the Spirit is saying, but that they would listen to what the Spirit is saying, and apply it in their own lives Father. I thank you God for the privilege of being Your bondservants, and I want to give You all the glory now for anything that is established in the earth because of the sharing of this message. In Jesus' Name, Amen.

So, as I said, the Lord has given me more understanding. An interesting thing I first want to share is that on the day I shared the last message, I discovered it was the exact day in the Early Barley Calendar when Moses passed away. That exact day in the Early Barley Calendar was the day Moses handed the baton over to Joshua, went up onto Mt Pisgah and he was shown the Promised Land and he died there. So that is no coincidence, it is actually a confirmation from the Lord that we are tracking with the Spirit and keeping in step with the Spirit, as we explore these things.

Following Moses' death on 7th Adar, there was 30 days of mourning. Then the people of God crossed over into the Promised Land on the 10th Aviv. After 3 days of preparation, when the days of mourning were ended, they were then ready to cross over the Jordan river. That day, 7th Adar, was also Moses' birthday. This is why he said in Deuteronomy 31:2, "Today I am 120 years old." So Moses died on the day in the calendar in which he was born, 120 years later. How absolutely astonishing!

So I want to now begin to share what the Lord said to me. He showed me that Fresh Oil Releases, in its present form, is the 'Moses' that has led the remnant company thus far, to the border and the edge of the Promised Land of our inheritance. So there is big change coming.

Many years ago, probably more than 20 now, I was spending time with the Lord and I saw a vision of angels filing out of a room and they each carried a big treasure box or jewellery box. When one of them was opened, inside was a folded up garment. The Lord also took large crystal-shaped things, I don't know exactly what they were made of, but He pushed two up into my hands and up my forearms, so that they could not be seen, and I said, "Lord what are You doing?" He said, "It is an anointing that is preserved and set aside for many years hence, and at the time I release it, it will begin to flow out of your hands."

So that was very interesting, and the Lord reminded me of that when He was speaking to me about Fresh Oil Releases being the 'Moses' that had brought the people thus far. So I said to the Lord, "Well what now Lord? What must I do now?" And He said, "Lay Fresh Oil Releases down, go up into the cleft of the rock, (which is what Pisgah means), and let Fresh Oil Releases in its present form die there. But before you do, let the Moses in you impart virtue, or anointing, to the Joshua in you."

I thought, "How strange, there is a Moses in me and there is a Joshua in me". I said, "Lord, I am not really understanding what You are saying." He said, "Awaken the dread champion inside you. Lay hands upon yourself and call forth Joshua in you, and anoint yourself with agar wood oil."

Now for those who have been with me for more than a year, you will know that I shared a message on the essential oil agarwood, or it is called in the Bible, aloewood, or eaglewood is another name of it. That was in the message called Dead Men Walking that was shared in June 2024, so you can go and scroll back on the podcast main page to listen to that message, or you can go to my website and download the zipfile of transcripts from June 2024.

I am going to share a little bit later the most amazing way in which the Lord connects things and ties up words He has spoken in previous seasons with current words He is speaking.

So He told me to lay hands on myself and call forth the Joshua in me, and to use aloewood essential oil, or it is also called agarwood. Then He took me to Deuteronomy 31:14, and it says this,

“Call Joshua and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, that I may give him his charge. So Moses and Joshua came and presented themselves at the tent of meeting. Then the Lord appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud.”

I knew that the Lord was telling me to present myself before Him, both the Moses in me, and the Joshua in me, because the Lord wanted to charge or give an assignment to the Joshua in me.

It says in Deuteronomy 31: 7-8,

“Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you shall go up with these people into the land that the Lord swore to their ancestors to give them, and you shall cause them to possess it.”

When I read that, the words “you shall go up with these people” caused my spirit to leap, and I knew the Lord was not going to take me home, but that He was going to transform and bring forth from within me quite a different ministry to the one that I had previously walked in to help feed the remnant up until this point, and that He would use me to help the people of God to possess their inheritance in Christ.

Verse 8 says, “The Lord himself goes before you and will be with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged.”

So when Moses and Joshua presented themselves at the tent of meeting, in verse 23 it says, “Then the Lord charged Joshua son of Nun: “Be strong and courageous,”. Now I want to say to you that it was the same words that Moses had just said in verse 7, but it is very different when words come out of the mouth of God. When Moses shared it with Joshua, it was information, but when the Lord charged Joshua, there was impartation. “Be strong and courageous, for you will bring the Israelites into the land I swore to give them, and I myself will be with you.”

So what the Lord told me was that I was to put on the prayer shawl that one of my subscribers had sent to me from Israel. I was to put that on, I was to anoint myself with the aloewood or agarwood oil, and I was to call forth the Joshua within me. When I did that there was a very powerful anointing that hit my whole body. I trembled from head to foot, I could feel something being imparted to me, and I also saw something in the spirit which I am going to share with you.

First of all I want to say that when I put on that prayer shawl, which is an absolutely beautiful one, it is embroidered with birds and flowers in blues, different shades of blue, and turquoise, when I put it on, I heard the scripture from Song of Songs 2:10,

*“My beloved speaks and says to me,
“Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away with me.
See! The winter is past;
the rains are over and gone.
12 Flowers appear on the earth;
the season of singing has come,
the cooing of doves is heard in our land.
The fig tree forms its early fruit;
the blossoming vines spread their fragrance.”*

In other words there is new fruit potential, ‘“Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away with me,” again He says it, “My dove in the clefts of the rock, in the hiding places on the mountainside, show me your face, let me hear your voice;”

So once again the cleft of the rock is mentioned, the place where Moses was called to ascend to and die, is the place that the Bride is called to arise and ascend to. In verse 14 of Songs 2 some translations say, ‘In the cleft of the rock in the secret place of the stairs.’ That word that King James translates ‘stairs’ also means ‘cliff’, so He is calling her up to high places. He is calling her to the place of intimacy because He wants to see her face and hear her voice. Just as Moses spoke to the Lord face to face and had a really intimate relationship, so the Bride is being called to rise up and ascend higher into the cleft of the rock. It is the place of intimacy. No wonder God called Moses to that place, because Moses was that man who knew God face to face.

It was astonishing that the tallit or prayer shawl that had been sent to me in June 2024, when I wrote that message Dead Men Walking, was the very one that was connected to this new message of calling forth the Joshua in me.

So I really sensed the Lord was saying, “The Moses in you must be a dead man walking now, and the Joshua in you must arise and go forward”. Amazing the way God works isn't it?

He called her in Songs 2 to “Arise and come away,” and that word is ‘halak’ in the Hebrew, it means ‘to walk, to depart, to move, to go away or to die’. In other words, leave your old life, let it be dead to you, and come up to a higher place, to the place of the cliffs where the eagles nest. That is why God called me to use agarwood or aloewood, or eaglewood is its other name, to anoint myself in calling forth the Joshua in me.

As the baton is handed over, Joshua is called forth, and I experienced an incredible amount of virtue or anointing transferred from one part of my spirit to another part of my spirit. As I prayed I saw in the spirit a shelf of books tilting, and all the books sliding off onto another shelf in a different part of the library. The resting place of the books and their contents was being changed in an instant.

Now the reason why I am telling you this is because we tend to assume that we are aligned to only one character in the Word of God, or ‘I am an Esther’, or ‘I am a Deborah’, or ‘I am a Joshua’, or ‘I am a Paul’, but what the Lord was showing me is that because we are in Christ and all those characters in the Word of God depicted truths about Jesus, because He is the Word made flesh, that God can move us from one identification to another identification in a different chapter. So God was moving me from identifying with Moses, leading the remnant through the wilderness, because He called me and said, “Will you feed My sheep during the flood of the dragon?” And a shepherd is one who feeds and leads his sheep. Now He is saying, “There is a Joshua in you that I want to call forth for the next part of this journey”.

The Spirit reminded me of a passage in the book of End Time Wine, when I saw that shelf of books tilting. For those of you who are new to this channel, you can download my books free on my website on the BOOKS page, www.freshoilreleases.com. Don't end up on my old WordPress site, because I have not updated that in years. My .com site is my current website. All my transcripts of the podcasts from 2021 until now are on the STOREHOUSE page in zipfiles for download, the BOOKS page has all my books free for download, and the MEDIA page has connections to my Telegram account, to my podcast and to my Brighteon account, which is very seldom updated, but there is one message on my Brighteon account that you must look at, which is about ascending higher. <https://www.brighteon.com/e9734f5e-6e75-4c96-9cfb-2a99c4e0bd59>

I want to read to you from the passage in the book End Time Wine that I was reminded of when I saw those books tilting into another place of the library.

“Then my perspective of the scene changed and I saw that what I was viewing was a long length of DNA, and that it was actually the code sequences of the DNA that appeared as books on different shelves. These code sequence books were being taken out by the angels, opened, checked, bits added on blank pages, and then closed, stamped and sealed with the Hebrew letter shin, before being replaced, either where they came from or books were shifted along the shelves and the adjusted and sealed books were being put back in new places. The angels performing these tasks were messengers carrying out the instructions from the throne.

Some of the shelves were being dusted off and others had dustsheets pulled off them, and I was given the knowledge that these were very old books which had been silenced and hidden and their specific order represented muted codons (genetic sequences), in other words they could not speak. I watched in fascination as windows were opened wide to let in more light on these books that had just been uncovered.

In the middle of the spiral library of shelves full of books, I could see a kneeling, praying figure. There was a cloud of fragrance rising off in coloured trails from this person and the angels would listen to the prayers and smell the fragrance rising and this seemed to tell them everything they needed to know about what to do next. This woman was praying under the guidance of the Holy Spirit who had access to the deep things of God. Once the angels heard the instructions, they would move the ladders and access different books and go through the same process again. I understood that the shelves of books depicted the DNA of the person praying and that angelic messengers were doing genetic engineering, as the prayers ascended. All malfunction and broken places were being restored to order and correct sequence. I heard the word ‘Restore’ spoken as a command, but it was said like this: Re-Store, or store in different locations. The next word that was sounded out was ‘Re-furbish’, then ‘Re-open, Re-veal, Re-seal’ and I knew that all these instructions concerned the angels working with the books on the shelves. I began to pray, “Lord let every codon in the library of my DNA receive Your mark. Let all the silenced books be uncovered and shine Your light on their contents. Let the sequence of the books in my DNA bring You glory.”

The next scene I saw as I prayed were angels in a dormitory waking little children, who were sleeping in beds lined up like black and white piano notes. I knew somehow that they were the sleeping DNA codons. “Why are they young?” I asked the Lord. “... Because they never had a chance to grow and mature. They were put to sleep at an early age,” He explained. And I knew that these small children represented the books which had been asleep or hidden under dustsheets in the library. The arrangement of their beds like the keys of a piano indicated to me that each of these children had the ability to release a sound which was originally intended to be part of the music which came from the person whose DNA the library represented. “You have an orphanage inside of you,” said the Lord, which startled me somewhat. “And all of them belong to you. Awaken them and embrace them as your own,” He continued, “David prayed for his inner self, his glory, to awaken,” that’s in Psalm 57:8, “Awake, my glory (my inner self); awake, harp and lyre! I will awake right early [I will awaken the dawn]!”

So I began to pray for the Lord to send angels to awaken every sleeping codon within my DNA and I declared that I embraced them as my own. I saw myself with my arms around the little group of children and asked God to complete the work He had begun in switching on the full complement of codons in the DNA sequence He had placed inside of me. Immediately I heard the words of a short poem that was announcing what effect the waking up of these codons would have in the spiritual realm:

‘Sleeping beauty, waking queen, raised to power from your dreams, raised to glory, clothed with might, hidden weapon brought to light.’

As I have pondered these words, I have come to realize that the work I saw going on in that giant library is not only being carried out in that one person praying, but in all appointed to be a part of the remnant Bridal Company. It is a foundational work done at a cellular level, restoring the devastations of generations; bringing into alignment and full order in preparation for union with the Bridegroom. Transformation would pre-cede elevation or ascension.

Psalm 139 tells us that the details about us are written in God’s book before any of it manifested. I believe that what is being referred to as being written is the DNA sequence, which is carrying out the instructions within it and forming the embryo in the womb.

Psalm 139:16 KJV Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being imperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them. How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!

Where it says the words ‘my members’, that does not actually appear in the Hebrew, it actually says ‘in Your book, all was written’. Now we know development does not stop once the baby exits the womb. Growth and change continue right through life and all of this is being done by the cells following the instructions written in the DNA. Having seen the angels working in the DNA library, it seems that some instructions are not heard because of the codons being muted or covered over. Therefore, some of God's thoughts toward us, or His plans and purposes for us, have yet to be heard or completed. The orphaned codons must be awakened and welcomed back into the fold so that the full rounded sound God intended our lives to make in the earth can be released. Once all our codons are firing and releasing their sound, the initial intended purposes of God which he encoded into our DNA can be carried out."

Now I just want to interject here and say, that is exactly what I was doing when God said, "Call forth the Joshua in me." I had no idea there was a Joshua in me! First I've heard of it. It has been completely silent and muted until now, and suddenly God has called to awaken it.

Now further on in the book of End Time Wine it says this:

Hebrews 10:7 "Then I said, Behold, here I am, coming to do Your will, O God--[to fulfil] what is written of Me in the volume of the Book.

You know Jesus said that, but in the volume of God's book it is also written of us and the Pattern Son resides within us, so His codon sequence or instruction is available to us. This is why Paul prayed for the Ephesians that the eyes of their understanding would be enlightened to know accurately the hope of their calling and THE GLORIOUS RICHES OF HIS INHERITANCE IN the saints. That inheritance is what is written in God's book concerning His Son. Perfect union and alignment means our own awakened DNA is joined as one to the Pattern Son. This awakening and reordering of the library of our DNA is the receiving of our end-time scrolls; the instructions written in the Book concerning Us. Once the codons are in divine order and healed and sealed in His Name, they begin to release the divine sound they hold within. We go from glory to glory by beholding Him; by gazing face to face; by our DNA scroll gazing as in a mirror toward the Pattern Son. No wonder Jesus said we would do even greater things. The rotating RNA rod of God, the Seed, the Son, is within us giving off light and sound from the volume of His Book and bringing forth the manifestation of Christ within us.

Then I am just going to read a little bit to you out of Chapter 4 titled Producing His Full Rounded Sound.

Once again, I was praying about waking up the codons and the sleeping DNA strands and I saw a vision; angels again waking children sleeping in beds in a dormitory. These are the codon children

I had seen before. This time, they stand in a row for roll-call to check that each one awakened is present. Then the angels press the feet of the children one by one and they release a musical note from rounded mouths, almost like a church organ pedal which causes the organ pipes to release their sound. The thought fills me that my earthen vessel is a cathedral and this huge choir of codons is supposed to be singing constantly, worshipping God by releasing the fullness of their individual sounds, but this whole dormitory I have just seen has been sleeping 'til now and so there has been a huge gap in the choir stalls. Consequently, I have not been able to release a full rounded sound into the spiritual atmosphere. I hear again the scripture about glorious riches of His inheritance from Ephesians 1. Paul says the eyes of my heart must be enlightened or opened and awakened to see and realize the hope of my calling.

The Hebrew word for 'eye' also means 'fountain', so the eyes of my heart are a fountain and these codon children that I now see for the first time are part of the glorious riches of His inheritance which has been put inside me. The sound they release is meant to complete the sound released from the fountain of my heart into the earth. His inheritance within me releasing its full sound is the co-heir part made fully known in the earthly realm. The glorious riches of His inheritance within is that 'everything we need for life and godliness' spoken of by Peter, but a spirit of slumber entered when Adam fell and left the garden and some of those codons were silenced.

2 Peter 1:3 says, "accordingly His divine power has given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of Him who has called us to glory and virtue."

Did you see that? We have already been given it. The glorious riches of His inheritance spoken of in Ephesians 1 is already in the saints, but the eyes of our hearts have to be awakened to SEE it. And Peter gives us the key here – everything we have been given is accessed through knowing Him, through the knowledge of Him. The word in Greek for 'know' used here means 'full discernment, to become fully acquainted with'. In other words, face to face, as in a mirror...

Beholding Him, we are CHANGED from glory to glory.

Our DNA library is rearranged and restored and sealed with His Name. And we are transformed or 'clothed over' with our HEAVENLY DWELLING; our transfigured or changed tent or body; our inheritance, which has been stored up in Heaven for us – stored up UNTIL the appointed time of the scrolls being opened and read and manifested.

As the Spirit instructed me further on the sounding of the codons, I saw a strip of vertically positioned organ pedals of bright colours, blue, orange and red. When the organ pedal gets pressed, it releases its own bass sound that fills out the sound that the upper keys release. The upper keys represent spiritual keys; things we have been taught by the Spirit along the way in our spiritual journey. I don't know if you have noticed, but the use of the spiritual keys we have exercised so far still has not brought forth complete manifestation of that which we are pressing toward. Just as in the functioning of an organ, the top keys and the pedals work together to produce the music written on the music sheet. Codons and spiritual keys work together to release the full rounded sound; the complete sound which God designed your life to release into the spiritual atmosphere. Once the codons have been woken up and lined up in the correct order with the help of the angels, the fullness of the intention of the Great Composer is heard in the earth. There is a symphony that has been written by Heaven that the earth has never heard, but now in this generation, it is going to sound forth. All the instruments in God's orchestra are taking their places and each is going to play skilfully at the appointed time in the musical score and heavenly music is going to wrap this old world around, releasing incredible power to transform and change those who hear it.

David wrote in the Psalms, 'Let all that is within me praise His holy Name', that means every cell, every chromosome, every codon releasing the sound of the Word which came forth from God's mouth when He designed and framed you, before the foundation of the earth. You were destined to live for the praise of His glory and to do this with all that is within you; all that lies sleeping must be woken up and activated. The whole choir of codons must sing; the whole orchestra must play; every pedal on the organ of your heart must release its unique sound at the appointed moment. Then the glory of God will fill your temple and you will not be able to stand to minister, but will fall to your knees in adoration as you are filled with wave upon wave of the same power that raised Christ from the dead."

Okay, that's enough of the book for now. I want to go on to share what the Lord showed me about Fresh Oil Releases. It says in the Word in Deuteronomy 34:7 that Moses was 120 years old when he died, and his eye was not dimmed and his natural force was not abated.

Fresh Oil Releases is not laying down because I can no longer see in the Spirit and have no power, but because it is God's ordained handover time to another portion. The '120 years old' connects us to the 120 in the upper room waiting for the outpouring of the Spirit, which then caused them to pour out onto the street, into the midst of humanity.

In Deuteronomy 34:9 it says,

“And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him.”

Remember I said to you when I laid my hands on myself, with the eaglewood anointing oil, there was incredible impartation. What was contained in the Moses portion thus far was imparted to the Joshua portion. I would really encourage you to do this for yourself, to call for the Spirit of Joshua within you. Remember that Joshua is connected to Jesus, Yeshua; the Hebrew word Joshua means ‘Saviour’. So when you call forth the Joshua within you, you are calling forth Christ in you, but you don’t want to lose that which you have accumulated in spiritual treasure thus far, which is why the Moses in you must impart the wisdom that you have gleaned thus far. Impart it to the Joshua in you so that you can carry it with you in the same way as Moses wrote the first 5 books of the Bible, and put them inside the ark of His presence before he died, and that ark was carried over the Jordan into the Promised Land.

The Lord showed me that I must complete the work of everything that has to be uploaded to my Fresh Oil Releases website within these 30 days of the mourning for Moses that we are in. Because by the time we come to the 7th Aviv, when the people were told to prepare their provisions for 3 days in preparation for crossing over on 10th Aviv, by that time my Fresh Oil Releases website must be complete. So I have already had my tech guy upload all my remaining songs to my website. There were 30 songs uploaded on the website for listening on the SONGS page, and there was also a zipfile on the MEDIA page where you could download all those songs. I have now uploaded from number 31 to number 68, I think it is, of the songs in a zipfile on my MEDIA page for download, if you want to own a copy of the songs; they can also be listened to on the SONGS page. I have also uploaded a zipline of the lyrics for songs 31-68.

So those are available for you to access, and get into your own possession.

This is what the Lord said to me about the website; “It will serve as a repository, an ark if you will, holding the records of what I have said to you thus far. Just as Moses wrote the 5 books of the Torah and placed them in the ark, so too you have placed all that I have said to you thus far on the website for others to access. It is a well of refreshing, a compass pointing the way, and a signpost across the Jordan for those who come this way.”

Then He asked me a question; “Did Joshua record more of what God said and added it into the ark with the first 5 books?” I said, “No Lord”, and He answered me, “And neither will you. Though the ark was carried with them, no more was added to its contents.”

So I knew that once I post a final post on my website explaining about crossing the Jordan, I will no longer be posting new posts on the freshoilreleases.com website. And the Lord has also said to me I will no longer be posting transcripts on the STOREHOUSE page ( or sending them to email subscribers). The time of being handed the ready-written transcripts of the audio message is coming to an end, by the time we get to 10th Aviv, when the crossing over the Jordan took place.

I know a lot of you will be upset about that, because there are quite a number of people who say they prefer the transcripts, because then they can work through them and study them. But I want to say to you, in the same way as once they crossed from the wilderness to the Promised Land, they no longer had daily manna falling every day, that they just had to pick up and eat. When they got to the Promised Land they ate of the fruit of the land and they had to plant their own gardens and get their own food.

So I will continue to do podcasts as long as the internet is available, on my Fresh Light Releases podcast. However, you will have to take a notebook and a pen when you listen to the podcasts, and make your own notes. That is why I would suggest to you that instead of just listening on the podomatic app, that you download the podcasts, so you have a copy of the podcasts to re-listen if you would like to, but if you write your own notes, you will find that it gets into your memory and into your spirit a lot quicker than if you just reading what someone else has given you to read.

So that is what the Lord has instructed me to do. No more transcripts of podcasts, no more uploads of posts, once we come to the end of this mourning season for Moses, and just the frequency of the audio messages will go forth from that time forward. So I am giving you good advanced warning.

The website will remain up until they block it, or take it down. I do want to say to you that when you put www.freshoilreleases.com in your search engine, you will find that it will probably say to you ‘accessing an untrustworthy website has been blocked’. My website is not untrustworthy, I just did not use any one of their massive sanctioned service providers, and so they are trying to prevent you accessing the site. You will be given in that notice opportunity to access the details, and to continue to the website, even though you have been told it is not safe. I assure you, it is completely safe. There is nothing unsafe about perusing my website, but there is just that little hitch that always comes up, because the enemy loves to put stumbling stones in the path of those who are seeking truth.

I did ask the Lord if I was to change the name of the ministry, and He said to me this; “Elisha wore Elijah’s mantle; to those looking at its outward appearance, it looked like the same old mantle. But the person wearing it was different, and another portion of anointing had been added to it.”

So, it will still be called ‘Fresh Oil Releases’. However, under the covering of that name, God will have imparted the Joshua portion, which I will continue to pray comes forth as it should for the good of the body.

Now speaking of muted codons, Joshua, who had walked very closely with Moses right through the wilderness, had a whole portion of his calling muted until the handover moment. He then personally received his charge from God. God spoke courage and strength into him, and banished fear and trembling. He was also full of the Spirit of wisdom from Moses, so the first portion of the Kingly anointing was there. What was there left to receive? Well, of the seven Spirits of God there is the Spirit of Might, and the Spirit of Knowledge that had yet to be manifested. Both of these are imparted at the moment needed. Wisdom, which he received from Moses, is a well to draw from, but might and knowledge are tailored for the task at hand. The Spirit of Wisdom, which he received from Moses, was the first fruits of the Kingly anointing.

The Spirit of Might is always supplied in the moment of battle, as you follow through in obedience to the blueprint God gives you to fight the battle. The Spirit of Knowledge is also supplied at the moment needed.

Now an example of this is Esther who fasted for 3 days and received counsel and revelation in the secret place, and God’s battle blueprint. All that was given during the fast, while she was acting in her priestly portion but then when she implemented the blueprint God gave her, the Spirit of Knowledge and the Spirit of Might exposed Haman as the enemy and had him taken down.

Now I want to say to you, when possessing the Promised Land of your inheritance, you have to wait for the blueprint and execute it the way God said, just like when they surrounded Jericho. It was not a normal way to take down a city, but they had to do it the way God said, and then on the 7th day, when they shouted, the Spirit of Might was released and those walls fell down.

The mantle of wisdom is how to execute the blueprint you are given, or the plan, when to say what, and how to say it, to expose, strip and route the enemy. Esther did not just march in with her hands on her hips and say to the king, “Listen, this guy Haman that you are so enamoured with is an enemy and you need to get rid of him.” That would have just put the king’s back up. No, she had to give two love feasts or banquets with the enemy sitting across the table from her, and then, in God’s perfect timing, she said what God told her to say, and the king responded the way God knew he would respond. Haman was exposed and executed. Esther and Mordecai took over the house of Haman and wrote edicts to equip the people of God to defend themselves and route the enemy.

Joshua received the fullness of wisdom in the wilderness side of the Jordan, and then God imparted, through the Spirit of Counsel, what the blueprint was to cross the Jordan. The priests must carry the ark and stand in the middle of the river, and He would hold back the water. As this was executed in real time by the faithful, obedient footsteps of the priests carrying the ark, the Spirit of Might rolled back the waters to Adam, and the people crossed over on dry ground.

It was the Spirit of the Fear of the Lord that caused Joshua to know people must sanctify themselves before crossing over. Operating in the Spirit of Knowledge and government positioning, he told the people to sanctify themselves and walk 200 cubits behind the ark when it went ahead of them.

Joshua is a picture of what the book of Zechariah describes - God's servant the branch operating both as a priest and a king, and all seven Spirits in operation. We see the seven Spirits described in Isaiah 11, but it says there, when it describes Jesus the branch, that his delight was in the fear of the Lord. Jesus is the original' Servant, the Branch', the high priest after the order of Melchizedek.

Did you know that Joshua died when he was 110? That connects us to Psalm 110, which is the Melchizedek priesthood psalm. "Sit until I make your enemies your footstool. The Lord at your right hand will strike through kings." In other words, in the battle God is with you, operating in a Spirit of might. The remnant Tip of the Spear is now going to cross over into the fullness of this Melchizedek priesthood in the next chapter, and I am delighted that I am going to be a part of experiencing that in the earth with you.

Just know this, that the seven Spirits are not visibly burning all at the same time. As you do what Jesus the Branch did –

- Doing what you see the Father doing, seeing is connected to the Spirit of revelation or understanding.
- Saying what you hear the Father saying, which is what the Spirit of Counsel is operating deep in your spirit.

So, seeing and hearing is the Spirit of Revelation, and the Spirit of Counsel. Then the kingly authority and anointing manifests in kairos moments, as you are fulfilling the blueprints of God - blind eyes opening, prisoners released, dead raised. It is a 'hand in glove' operation; you are the glove, fully emptied, dead man walking, and filled with the governmental anointing that is given to the sons of right hand.

Ruling in the midst of God's foes, you are His righteous sceptre extended from the heavenly Mt Zion, where Christ and the Church of the First Born are positioned.

Haggai 2:21-23 says this, "Yet once more I will shake the heavens and the earth," and then He speaks of overthrowing and destroying the ungodly. Then God says, 'In that day', what day? The day of the shaking and fall of the ungodly,

"In that day I will take you, " in other words you are chosen,
"and I will make you my signet ring." He will take us and He will make us His signet ring,
"For I have chosen you."

There is an awful lot there about what God is going to do. What you need to do is be a dead man walking. God says, "I will take you, and I will make you... for I have chosen you". Hallelujah!

The difference between the Moses chapter and the Joshua chapter is going from, 'it's coming up ahead', to 'it is here, let us arise and possess the fullness of what is allotted us'. That is the difference. It is moving from the prophetic; looking and speaking and seeing by faith what is coming, to possessing the substance of what has now come.

Now just in finishing, I want to share just a little portion from my very first book, Beauty Treatments for the Bride, concerning Joshua.

In Joshua 19:50 it says that Joshua asked to live at Timnath-serah in the hill country of Ephraim. Timnath-serah means 'a measured portion of shining'. This was Joshua's desire - to live in the glory, and this is where Joshua's bones were buried. Should this not also be our desire - to dwell before His face, in the presence of His glory like Mary of Bethany? This is the good portion and Joshua was given an anointing in proportion to his desire, an anointing to take the Promised Land. This was his 'date-cake'.

The good news is this - the anointing that Joshua had is still available to the church.

Your assigned portion of the Joshua anointing is waiting for you.

His mantle is still available to be picked up. Joshua was a type of Jesus and if it is your desire to dwell in the glory of God, this power to possess your inheritance and subdue the enemy is available to you. Where will you find it? Joshua 24:30 tells us where Joshua was buried. It gives us a detailed map to find the treasure:

‘They buried him at the edge of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, in the hill-country of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill of Gaash.’

Gaash means 'quaking, to shake violently'. So as we continue on our spiritual journey towards the city of the great King, once past the hill of Gaash, once we are past the great shaking (until that which cannot be shaken in our lives remains) there is an allotted double portion (Ephraim means double portion) of the Joshua anointing waiting for us, that we may go up and possess fully our inheritance. It will be the Joshua generation that will dwell in His presence, before His face at Timnath-serah but this is not only for the young people. Every man and woman received a portion.

As I said before, Moses died at 120. 120 signifies the passing of the baton from the Moses generation to the Joshua generation, from the Torah or the Word only, to the Word plus the Spirit. In other words the fullness of Christ revealed within. He was the Word made flesh, but only at the Jordan, when He was openly acknowledged after passing through the waters of the Jordan, did the Spirit descend and remain with Him.

I want to just share something about inheritance from Psalm 110. The last verse says,

*“He shall drink of the brook by the way;
Therefore He shall lift up the head triumphantly.”*

That word brook is ‘nachal’ which means ‘a winter torrent or a flood, also the shaft of a mine’, so it is talking about something you drink deeply of or dig deeply into, and the root of that word for brook means ‘to inherit, to occupy, to distribute, to take as a heritage, to be made to possess’. So when it says ‘He will drink of the brook by the way’, hidden in the folds of that phrase is meaning about possessing your inheritance, deeply and fully. Because this Melchizedek priest is drinking deeply of his inheritance, and taking possession of it, He is triumphant and victorious and can lift up His head.

This psalm is a description of the Joshua chapter, the distribution of inheritance according to the boundaries specified by the Lord. Your inheritance is the revelation and experience of Christ. It may include houses and lands but not primarily. Remember the priests in the wilderness were not allotted land for inheritance, God was their inheritance, and so it is with us. You can read that in Joshua 13:33, and Ezekiel 44:28.

I don't know about you, but I want more and more of Jesus, I want to possess and experience the fullness of knowledge of the incredible riches of His inheritance in me. I want the pleroma of Christ. I want whatever that was that the Lord shoved through my palms into my forearms all those years ago, I want it to be released and flow through my hands as an anointing for healing. I want that garment on my shoulders that was carried in those boxes by those angels.

The Passion translation says this for Psalm 110:7,

'He himself will drink from His inheritance as from a flowing brook, refreshed by love, He will stand victorious.'

Hallelujah Beloved! We are going to be drinking deeply of the fullness of our inheritance in the coming days. May the Lord just add to, confirm, explain fully and lead you into all truth from what I have shared with you. Study the Scriptures that I have shared with you. Go and download the songs that we have made available on the website for you. Download the lyrics. There are many about the day of the Lord, there are many about victorious marching into the fullness of all that He has for us. There are many words there given by the Spirit that are for the days of crossing over the Jordan. May you be greatly blessed in His wonderful name.

Amen.
