

Bedazzled or Glorified ~ audio version

I want to, first of all, thank all of you who pray for me on a regular basis. It makes such an incredible difference to know that people are standing shoulder to shoulder with you and lifting you up before the throne. And thank you also to all those who prayed when my website was unavailable for about 12 hours. The hard drive on the server had crashed - it can apparently be done by an advanced hacker or by the site being totally overwhelmed with the number of visitors and. We're now looking into extra security measures, but, praise God, due to prayer and warfare of the Saints, it was very quickly back up again. Thank you so much. Actually, that morning, Wednesday, the 24th, very early in the morning. The Lord kept showing me myself on my face with a prayer shawl over me, praying to Him. And I was trying to go back to sleep... eventually, I realized that He wanted me to get up and pray. And when I sat up in bed, He said, "Pray, daughter, a storm is coming". I didn't know that a few hours later, the website would go down, and I do feel that was just the outer edges of the storm – you know those winds that howl at the edges of a tornado! So, gird yourselves and brace yourselves, remnant saints. There is more bad weather coming.

Anyway, after I shared part one of The Threshing Floor Separation, I was planning to immediately share part two and three, but the Lord has had other ideas. On the 22nd of November, I was praying for the remnant, praying that God would empower, encourage and enlighten them. Those three things EMPOWER, ENCOURAGE and ENLIGHTEN them. And I was asking Him to grant me the light and truth that was needed to be able to impart those three things to the remnant, as I shared with them through His messages. Immediately, the Lord began to speak, as He sometimes does when He has a whole lot to say. And so, I just recorded what He said, and I'm going to share that with you and then afterwards share another experience that I had. So this is the Lord that was speaking from now on:

“These are dark days, dear one. And yet some are so surrounded by artificial light that they have no concept of the hour or the danger they are surrounded by. So much false light has been sent out by those who claim to speak for Me, who claim that they are My representatives, that the sheep are quite bedazzled and befuddled and grazing joyfully unawares as the breath of the Beast bears down upon them. Those false messengers are modelled after their father, the one who masqueraded as an angel of light in the garden, and they wear their masks well! Such smooth words and sweeping statements claimed to be ‘hot off heaven's press’ and the unwise in the flock are duly impressed and placated.

Does My Word not say that when a wise man sees evil, he hides himself? Yet these sheep graze right at the edge of the cliff and shut their ears to the warnings of My true watchmen. Foolishness is bound up in the heart of many of My children. And they do not make use of the rod of correction in My Word that would save their souls from evil intent.

Foolishness and apathy will precipitate the death of many of the flock in these days. Their God is their stomach and they use no discernment when gobbling up any platter on offer. They are enemies of the Cross of Christ, and when they cry out as the wolf devours their flesh, I cannot help them, for they have not chosen to love Truth, nor have they anchored themselves in My secret place. No, they have loved frivolity and vanity and flattery and made their own bed. Admiring men's persons has been their downfall.

Does My Word not say that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom? But still, they fear men and give honor where honor is not due. Why do they not tremble at My Word and run to Me for counsel and instruction? I have longed to be gracious to them, but they prefer the stroking of hirelings, who have no concern for holiness nor the welfare of My sheep. I have said the purge must come and the winnowing must take place. You cannot stop it by your prayers - for it is My hand that wields the winnowing fan.

You must follow hard after me. Time is short! I will have a pure remnant, and those who choose the comforts of the flesh in these days will not make the grade. I need committed soldiers, yielded bond-slaves, humble servants who will follow the Lamb wherever He goes. Grievous destruction comes to those who follows the piping tunes of man in this hour. Urgently deliver yourselves of every weight and the sin that so easily entangles and cast yourselves upon My mercy. I am coming soon, but oh, the storm that will rage until that day! Lash yourselves to the mast of My cross and let My Blood speak for you, as wave after wave of tornado-driven winds try to sink the ship.

Find the eye of the storm by positioning yourselves under My eye alone. I will deliver you from death and keep you alive in famine. I am your shield and exceeding great reward. You can trust me. Yes, you can trust me. Courage, my love!"

And then I was instructed to read Psalm, 57, and verse one was an amazing confirmation!

'Be merciful and gracious to me, oh God, be merciful and gracious to me, for my soul, takes refuge and finds shelter and confidence in You. Yes. In the shadow of Your wings, I will take refuge and be confident until calamities and destructive storms are passed.'

And then I heard the verse from Psalm, 46, verse 10: 'Be still and know that I am God, I will be exalted, I will be exalted in the Earth'.

Now, I just want to give you the definitions of a few words that God's used in what He said that some people may not know.

Bedazzled ~ to dazzle so completely as to make blind, to enchant or cast a spell over. Befuddled ~ dazed, confused, vague and bewildered.

Apathy ~ a lack of interest or concern about something, to have indifference.

So those are the three words that God used to describe many of his children in this hour BEDAZZLED, BEFUDDLED and full of APATHY. I do pray, beloved Saint, that you are not among those who are grazing at the edge of the cliff. To you who are alert and awake, the Lord says, "Courage, My Love!"

And then the second experience I want you to share with you is a scene I heard and saw on the 23rd of November, 2021. I heard the Lord say, "Come with me". And then suddenly we were in a place that I had seen before. It was a hill in the heavenly realms, where very old frankincense orchards are planted. You could see the trees were of great age because they were very gnarled, but they were very orderly, planted in rows and they were still growing and still exuding frankincense resin. And I remembered that before the Lord had told me that they represented ancient saints, who had already gone home to be with Him from generations past. But they were still planted and still exuding frankincense, which represented prayer, in the heavenly realms. And as I looked at these ancient trees, I saw them fall on their knees and weep. They became figures that were on their knees with their faces in their hands, and they were weeping great pools of tears that collected around them.

The Father said, “They are purchasing the glory which is needed on the earth right now as the darkness deepens”. The golden glow began to surround these crouching interceding figures who were weeping, and the golden light began to flow into the pools of tears. Then those pools of tears formed little trickles of rivers, and there were a multitude of rivers with this golden glow that were all running into one cup. And I said to the Lord, “What is this cup?”

And he said, “The cup of My coming. For those who are willing to drink of the cup, My ‘apokalypsis’ will occur in them”. And I knew that word because I had looked into it before. It's the word that's used when the manifestation of the sons are spoken about, it means ‘to manifest or reveal’. So, He said his manifestation or revealing would occur in those who were willing to drink of the cup.

And then I was reminded of the time in Mark Chapter 9, where Jesus took three of his disciples and took them to a mountain apart. And He was transfigured and His garments became very white. He was on Earth, but He was communing face to face with Heaven. And I felt that the apocalypse or the manifestation or revealing of the Bridegroom's coming that would occur in the saints would be like this transfiguration - our feet would be on earth, but we would be communing face to face with Heaven. And then, He reminded me of the scripture in 2 Thessalonians 1:10, where He is coming IN His people. These are those who dwell in the glory realm; in the Speaking Place.

And I asked the Lord, “Why is the glory to be purchased? Did the cross not purchase all that was needed?” And He said, “My blood purchased Entrance, but power is GENERATED! Think of hydroelectric power. In heaven, the prayers of the Saints generate that power”. And I was reminded of Revelation 8, where much incense was added to the bowls of prayers on the golden altar. And a censer full of the coals was thrown on the Earth. Then thunder, lightnings, voices and an earthquake happened! Those prayers are prayers that are being spoken in Heaven, not earth. And it is the saints who have already died praying them (previously, I always understood that scene to be describing the prayers of saints on earth, so I am asking for more clarity). The saints who have gone before are generating the glory power for the saints on earth to be filled and able to stand in the deepening darkness.

May the Lord increase and add understanding what I saw and heard in that experience, in the name of Jesus. Amen.
