

Waging a Good Warfare

AUDIO VERSION OF 'WAGING A GOOD WARFARE'

This is not part of my three-part series that I started last week. I just feel I do need to release this message now as a warning and to equip the remnant to know how to pray for themselves. I'm sure all of you have realized by now that we are in an incredible spiritual battle with this forced pharmakeia worldwide. It is not only an attack in a physical arena. There is a strong soul element. Fear is a huge problem rampaging as people who come into the knowledge of the truth of what's happening are often overcome by fear and paralyzed - and then go back into denial just in order to cope emotionally. And there is also a great spiritual battle as the world and its systems are preparing for the unveiling of the Antichrist and the whole beast system.

And so, I want to share with you something that the Lord alerted me to concerning a part of the spiritual battle in this substance that is being forced into earthen vessels. It came to my attention in June 2021, when the Lord woke me up in the middle of the night, and said, "Kelpies, Kelpies, Kelpies..." And He gave me a message which was entitled 'And the he-goats will fall'. He gave a warning message that He was going to deal with those people who operated in water spirits within His Body, which is a counterfeit of the power of the Holy Spirit.

A kelpie is a sheep dog - which is interesting, because dogs in the Bible usually represent religious spirits. So, we have a religious spirit that is herding sheep... probably over the cliff in this case! But a kelpie is also a water spirit that manifests on the earth as a strong horse. And God spoke to me in June 2021 that there was there was coming a huge increase in the release of water spirit activity in the Earth. And then the Holy Spirit started to show me how this is all woven in to the rollout of the pharmakeia shot. Now, when it first came out, a doctors and scientists had no knowledge of what was actually inside the contents of the vials because there was no list of contents on the boxes that they came in. Quite deliberately, of course. However, it's now been ascertained that there are Hydra Vulgaris in the witch's brew. Hydra Vulgaris is a little creature whose eggs hatch in the presence of graphene oxide, and it seems to be fed and energized greatly by graphene oxide, which we know is in the contents of the vial. Now, 'Hydra' is obviously Latin for 'water', so there already the Lord alerted me to a connection with water spirits when this was discovered. I think most of us have also probably heard about luciferase, which is the bioluminescent substance which is involved also in the present concoction and in the later version of it, in which there will be a patch that one sticks on one's hand and the medicine is delivered like that through multitudes of small spikes which dissolve under the skin. The luciferase glows in the presence of an ultraviolet light, and they get luciferase from a certain jellyfish. A jellyfish lives in the sea. And guess what? The Hydra Vulgaris (which looks a bit like a tapeworm with a number of long legs and a small head, and it can multiply by itself by just budding off itself) is the cousin of the jellyfish from which they get the luciferase, so it's all in the family. As I said, a jellyfish lives in the sea, and water spirits are actually marine spirits, and the Marine Kingdom in the demonic world is one of the most powerful and evil demonic subsections of the forces of darkness. In fact, the head of the Marine Kingdom is the Queen of the Coast spirit, and Jezebel is a water spirit or marine spirit that comes under the Queen of the Coast. Now, the Western Church knows a lot about the spirit of Jezebel and prays much into that. But did you realize that you were praying about shutting down a water spirits activity?

Then I discovered the third thing in which something that lives in water is involved in this whole shenanigans that is being perpetuated worldwide is in the test that they stick up your nose to see if you've got the dreaded virus. The P Dot C Dot R dot test... I discovered listening to a teaching by a blessed sister who did some research into how they actually do this test, that they heat the DNA strand that is on the swab that they have inserted very close to your brain. And as I shared in a message called 'Standing in the Fire', human DNA when heated unrolls and unfurls from its spiral. And then what they do is they take a bacteria called thermal aquaticus bacteria. In the scientific laboratories, they have renamed the thermal Aquaticus bacteria as Tacpolymerase - this is just a pseudonym, the Babylonian name if you will, of thermal aquaticus bacteria. They insert it in between the two unfurled DNA strands. And guess where this bacteria is found? It is found in volcanic mud, which is extremely hot sulphurous water mixed with earth - volcanic mud. That bacteria lives in that extremely hot water. So, when they heat the DNA extremely hot so that the scroll unrolls they put that thermal aquaticus bacteria that can withstand the very high temperatures in between those heated up DNA strands. And then they cool it down, and as they cool it down, the DNA anneals. In other words, it all sticks back together again, but it weighs more because now there is something else inserted in between. And then they replicate it. For the P dot C Dot R test. And in three hours, they make about one billion of this hybrid DNA that weighs more than the ordinary strand. So, the Lord showed me that in three instances; in the Hydra Vulgaris, in the luciferase of the cousin jellyfish and in the testing using the thermal aquaticus bacteria – ALL THINGS THAT DWELL IN WATER, and the Holy Spirit said to be involved in all of this is the permission of water spirits to start strong demonic activity against people.

So, what I wanted to share with you is that it is important when you are praying for protection. I hope in the morning when you get up and you break bread and you have communion and spend time with the Lord that you pray for protection, that you take the authority that you've been given in the Name of Jesus; that Name that has given you authority over all power of the evil one, so that you can tread upon serpents and scorpions, and so that nothing by may by any means harm you, that you cut off the following:

- all sorcery, the effects of all pharmakeia or witchcraft.
- Every curse, every spell, every incantation,
- every demonic ritual sealed in innocent blood
- bind and cut off every water spirit attack.

Since I started doing that, there has been a significant lifting of the oppression coming against me in the spiritual realm. So, for all those of you of the remnant company who are waging war daily in this battle on both a physical, a soul or mental level where you take every thought captive, add into your toolbox of prayers this dealing with the water spirits.

I want to just share with you how the Lord confirmed this. On the 4th of November, I went down to the beach near where I live to take a walk along the promenade. And you know how sometimes in open air places, they display artworks or sculptures? Well, that day, there was the sculpture of a horse's head; a giant horse's head, probably about two meters high, and it was made up of snakes with strands of the mane rising up as if it was being blown by the wind. And at the end of the strands of the mane were little demonic goblin faces. Now, remember I said to you that kelpies are water spirits that manifest as horses in the earth, and here at the boundary where the sea meets the land, some demonically inspired person had crafted the sculpture of a kelpie's head.

Then I walked a little bit further and I came upon a sculpture of the same size, but this time it was a woman's head. And the strange thing was about the woman's face was that her skin was made entirely of scales. In other words, she was reptilian. That is another thing I add into my toolbox of prayers when I pray daily for protection. I cut off all water spirit attack, reptilian attack, Jezebel attack, Leviathan attack and every form of sorcery and witchcraft intended to disconnect me from the throne of God and from receiving everything that He would have me receive in the spiritual realm.

So, I came home from that very informative walk, and my maid who helps to clean my house once a week, told me about a religion in the country where she comes from. I don't know if you get it in all parts of the world, but in Africa you certainly do. They dress all in white and they tend to have their meetings outside and little groups on a Sunday. You'll see them sitting in open fields and that kind of thing. It's not a Christian community. They operate in water spirits. And she told me that back home, where she comes from in Zimbabwe, there are people who are part of that religion, who go under the water for three months at a time. Now, that is not humanly possible. You can only do that by demonic power. And when they come out, they come out of the sea with baskets of medicines, which they are obviously demonic potions, which they then offer to people, and those people get demonically ensnared.

And she told me about an incident, she was speaking about a specific woman, the family member went into the sea to look for her because they were worried after she'd gone into the sea and disappeared. And that family member died – washed up on the shore. In other words, they were sacrificed and killed by water spirits. And she told me that that very week when I saw those two sculptures, eight of the prophets of that particular demonic religion went into the water in white robes, because in the water is where they get their power. What they do is they go under the water, are empowered demonically and then come up and then minister to the people who are enslaved under their delusion. Eight prophets in one ceremony went under the water and came up dead to the surface. Isn't that interesting?

So, God is raising our awareness of an increase in demonic activity. The enemy has upped his game and a large part of the spiritual attack is through water spirits. So, remnant saints, guard yourselves, guard your families, be alert and awake and use the authority in the Name that is above every other name, as you daily intercede and act as watchman over your families, your loved ones and your communities. May the spirit of the living God, the spirit of truth who leads us into all truth, the spirit who searches the deep things of God - may that precious Spirit magnify, increase and establish the truth in what I've shared with you so that you can be equipped to wage a good warfare. May you be filled with the knowledge of His will in all spiritual wisdom, that you may live a life worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to Him and bearing fruit in every good work, growing and increasing in the knowledge of God. May you put the armour of the spirit every day and pray in the Spirit on every occasion, wielding the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God and may the God of Heaven and Earth; the only true God, watch over you and shelter you under His wing in these days, in the mighty name of Jesus. Amen.
