

In the footsteps of the Son
Willingly I follow on
Higher, higher, on I press
Set apart in holiness

Following the Lamb
Wherever You may lead
Living for the honor
Of Your Name
Born to glorify
You alone
With every breath
I worship You alone

All forsaken, left behind
Focused now; a girded mind
Counting all that's past but dross
I leave my burdens at the cross

I'm following the Lamb
Following the Lamb
Where You lead
I follow on
Living for
The Father's will alone
Following the Lamb
I'm following the Lamb
The spotless Lamb

On the Rock that will not move
I choose to live, to walk, to love
In the path laid out for me
My life laid down for Your glory

I'm following the Lamb
Following the Lamb
Where You lead
I follow on
Living for
The Father's will alone
Following the Lamb
I'm following the Lamb
The spotless Lamb

In the footsteps of the Son
Willingly I follow on
Higher, higher, on I press
Set apart in holiness

Following the Lamb
Wherever You may lead
Living for the honor
Of Your Name
Born to glorify
You alone
With every breath
I worship You alone

On the Rock that will not move
I choose to live, to walk, to love
In the path laid out for me
My life laid down for Your glory

My life for Your glory
My life for Your glory

I'm following the Lamb
Following the Lamb
Where You lead
I follow on
Living for
The Father's will alone
Following the Lamb
I'm following the Lamb
The spotless Lamb

Spotless Lamb
